

Municipal board
Decision expected
On city plan soon

The municipal board's decision on whether Toronto's amalgamation proposal should be heard is expected shortly. The board reserved judgment last Thursday on the motion of York county that the board should not hear the Toronto proposal.

York County protested that Toronto had not provided adequate information about the amalgamation proposal, that the people of Toronto should vote on amalgamation after all the facts had been presented them, and that Toronto's amalgamation was not amalgamation in the true sense of the word since only parts of two municipalities were affected.

Earlier last week at a meeting in Newmarket, the northern municipalities whose county levies would be doubled if Toronto's scheme is allowed, placed themselves squarely with the municipalities included in the amalgamation proposal in their fight against it.

Improved streets
Recommended
In Aurora council

A street inspector report with 27 clauses was presented to Aurora council for approval by Deputy-Reeve Harry Corner, chairman of the streets committee, on Monday night. With the exception of a proposal for a stop light at the corner of Kennedy and Yonge Sts., the committee's recommendations for local improvements were all passed.

Included in the lengthy report was the recommendation that the town consider the purchase of a power grader. Each clause dealt individually with the need for fill, catch basins, culverts, storm sewers and the removal of dead or dying trees considered dangerous to traffic.

Deputy-Reeve Corner also presented a sidewalk report, explaining that it was essentially the same report as had been presented last year. At that time it was impossible to undertake the repairs due to the shortage of cement. This year materials can be obtained in sufficient quantity to complete the work.

Mayor Alex. Bell strongly advised that action be taken by police to prevent the parking of vehicles on the streets of the town for more than five hours. Deputy-Reeve Corner brought in a resolution to this effect which was passed.

It was decided to ask Chief Fisher Dunham for suggestions for the appointment of an officer to police the area surrounding the high school every Saturday night from 10 to 12. This action followed a request from Tom Dixon, at present in charge of the Saturday night dances in the high school auditorium. Repeated complaints of persons under the influence of liquor frequenting the dances has made it necessary for council to take this step.

It was also recognized that it was in the interests of the Aurora recreation commission, which sponsors the dances, to raise funds for playground equipment, that an immediate stop be made of this practice.

28,000 see games
During hockey year

The first year of operation at the Newmarket arena as an artificial ice plant has been completed. Attendance figures showed total paying clientele for the Spitfires home games was 16,870. That figure included a pair of exhibition fixtures.

Markham with seven home games here drew 6,400 odd. The Town Mercantiles found favor with 1,566 customers. Opening night drew 987. Optimists-Lions hockey 884. Stroud play-off game here, 610.

No accurate figures as to minor or O.M.H.A. play-downs were available but they probably topped the 1,000 mark. Total is 23,330 taking in the hockey games. Total drawing card proved to be the Ganoque-Spitfires thriller with 1,378 of the boys and girls digging into their jeans to get by the gatekeepers. The Markham-Stouffville clash

CHURCH PARADE
FORMED BY 600
SCOUTS, GUIDES

Over 600 Boy Scouts, Girl Guides, Brownies and Wolf Cubs took part in the annual church parade of York Central District on Sunday at Aurora United church. Church services were conducted by Rev. K. D. Whatmough, assisted by Rev. H. Howey.

Assisting in the services were Scout James Higgins, patrol leader in the 1st Aurora Troop; Scout R. Moore, patrol leader in 1st Willowdale Troop; and taking the re-affirmation of pledges were: Brownies, Mrs. R. D. Heaton, Brown Owl, 1st Aurora Pack; Wolf Cubs, Miss Jane Hodgkinson, assistant Cubmaster, 1st Aurora Pack, Girl Guides, Miss Betty Boulding, captain, 1st Aurora Pack; Girl Guides R. Hoople, Scoutmaster, 1st Aurora Troop.

Mr. Whatmough who is also chaplain of the Aurora groups, gave the address on the flag.

The parade was led by the Aurora High School Cadet Band and the Newmarket Bugle Band. There were 28 color parties.

Following the service, the parade formed in front of the church for the march past.

The salute was taken in front of the post office by Scout Commissioner Clarke E. Locke and Guide Commissioner Mrs. Gunn. Mayor Alex Bell and other representatives of the district were present at the church and stood with the commissioners while the salute was being taken.

Bowser granted permit
For Simpson office

John W. Bowser is applying for a building permit for the construction of a Robert Simpson Co. order office on the Yonge St. lots familiarly known as the Board of Trade property, in Aurora, asked council to have the fire escape on the town hall moved to a temporary location on the east side of the building.

At present it projects over the lot of the proposed new building.

Mr. Bowser also applied for an easement over town property to gain access to the rear of the order office. In a motion moved by Councillor Chas. Davies this was granted with a reciprocal proviso for right of way behind the new building. Lorne C. Lee, town solicitor, was instructed to draw up the necessary papers for the transaction.

Painter falls off new Specialty factory Bldg.

John Antol, Toronto, is in York County hospital, Newmarket, with fractured ribs and bad bruises. This week he fell off the new Office Specialty Mfg. Co. factory building being constructed at Holland Landing.

The workman was painting part of the building, being employed by the National Decorating and Painting Co. He was brought to the Newmarket hospital immediately. Dr. G. E. Case attended.

Blind campaign
Reports progress

Contributions to the Canadian National Institute for the Blind may be sent to A. C. Lord, manager of the Bank of Toronto in Newmarket, or to Mrs. J. E. Morris, Prospect St. It was reported in error last week that contributions could be sent to Ken Flett, Bank of Montreal.

The campaign for funds is in its final stage. Mrs. Morris, chairman of the Newmarket and district advisory committee to the institute, said that final canvassing will be carried on until Saturday. Contributions may still be sent after that date, she said.

Most ballots favor meters

Newmarket and district residents generally favor parking meters in Newmarket. The results of a vote conducted by the Era and Express show that of the 43 ballots turned in, 30 favored the meters and 13 opposed them.

The ballot was printed in the issue of the paper two weeks ago, and aroused considerable discussion. Subscribers entering the Era and Express office, while only a few of them bothered to send in their ballots, strongly expressed their opinions on the meters, roughly in the same proportions pro and con as indicated by the ballots.

A good many of the ballots carried notes of approval or opposition in addition to the standard "x." Such comments as "Best thing

Re-elect Joe Dales
Optimist president
For second term

Jos. O. Dales was re-elected president of the Optimist club of Newmarket at a dinner meeting at the King George hotel on Tuesday night. Re-elected vice presidents were Jack Hamilton, Harley Brennan, sergeant-at-arms Morley Hunter. Allan Perks was elected secretary.

J. C. Purdy, vice president of the Optimist club of Keswick, conducted the election meeting and installed the officers. A club constitution was also adopted at the meeting and a committee chairman were elected.

Most of the Optimist executive members who started their term after charter night held office again. The club has been in existence for only five months.

A committee report from the chairman of the Boys' Work committee showed that the club had spent over $600 during the winter season to provide hockey equipment and activities for boys in Newmarket. The bantam hockey league and bantam all stars team were sponsored by the Optimists this year. Mr. Hollingsworth said that boys in the same age group are looking to the Optimists to start the baseball rolling for the summer season.

A complaint from the Boys' Work committee voiced disapproval of young boys being allowed to play pin ball machines in Newmarket. Chief Constable Byron Burridge, an honorary member of the club, said that he had tried to bring in licensing of Newmarket 'wing'

Tom Surgeoner was elected president of the Newmarket wing of the Royal Canadian Air Force Association on Wednesday. The meeting of the association was held in the Legion Hall and the film, "Target for Tonight" was shown.

Present were 12 members of the Bradford wing and a representation from Aurora. Membership in the association is open to all former air force personnel.

Other officers were first vice pres., A. Opps, second vice pres., Joe Tunney, sec.-treas., Tom Sadleski.

TELLS OF HOSPITAL AID

Mrs. Howard Cane will be the guest speaker at meetings of many organizations in the near future when she tells of the aims and work of the Women's Aid of York County hospital. Among those which Mrs. Cane will address are: the Hobby Club, Sharon, Women's Institute meetings in King and Belhaven and the Home and School Association, Oak Ridge.

SEND CLOTHING

A large bundle of good, used clothing was shipped to the Save the Children Fund this week from the Newmarket Home and School Association.

York County hospital
Receives Ont. bonus

A special maintenance grant of $1,629 has been made for York County hospital, Newmarket, by the Province of Ontario. Grants to 140 Ontario hospitals amounting to $2,604,542 were announced recently by Premier Leslie Frost.

These grants, a bonus or special allowance, based on 25 percent of the grants paid in 1949 to the hospitals for maintenance costs, are in addition to the ordinary maintenance grants. The cheques in payment of the special grants are already in the hands of officials of all hospitals, Mr. Frost said.

ARENA PROFIT
IS ESTIMATED
MUCH LOWER

The Newmarket council has deferred consideration of a debenture for more arena work until an auditor's report has been submitted. A motion by Tom Birrell and J. O. Dales was presented Monday night for borrowing $22,000 to put in an arena floor, reduce the deficit and build a corridor on the south side of the building.

"If you have a $7,000 net profit, I don't know why you are asking for a debenture," said Mayor Vale. It had been stated last week at council that the arena had made a net profit of $7,000 since artificial ice had been installed.

Tom Birrell estimated that there was not $7,000 net profit. "There is only about $3,800 to do us to the end of the season and we have considerable debts to pay off yet and they will reduce the profit considerably," he said.

"Then this is just a cash statement," said the mayor.

Councillor Dales asked that the tentative statement be tabled pending an auditor's statement. "It will give a clearer picture of the financial position," he said.

"We were told that there was a $7,000 net profit," said Mayor Vale.

"Well that isn't so. There is no use discussing this at all without an auditor's report," he said.

"The local paper was quite justified in publishing the profit statement last week. The report was made in council," said Deputy-Reeve J. L. Spillette. "Apparently there was no consideration taken of all the liabilities. It is all very well to say the arena is a wonderful asset to the community but we cannot put a blanket mortgage on Newmarket homes without concrete facts known to the public," he said.

Pavement project
Worries council,
Fears tax jump

Last week's agreement to improve paved streets in Newmarket was somewhat changed at the council meeting Monday night. The compromise made last week between local improvement with a charge to home owners and on the other hand, charging part of the project to the general tax rate is still not definite. Some members of council are keeping an eye on the tax which is expected to be increased.

One by-law was passed by council to construct curbs, gutters and storm sewers on certain streets. A second by-law to complete the project by resurfacing the remainder of the paved streets was not passed as council discussion was prolonged.

Max Boag and Frank Newton, property owners on Millard Ave., requested council to widen Millard Ave. from Main to Church streets and build curbs, gutters and storm sewers. Their complaints were about parking problems near the V.L.A. offices and water running off the street over properties on the south side. Millard Ave. had been included in the plan for resurfacing only.

A motion was presented to council to construct curbs and gutters which would widen Millard Ave. two feet on each side. Mayor Vale pointed out that such action would not prohibit the people on the street from petitioning for further widening.

Councillor Chas. VanZant said that it might be better to do the complete job on all the streets. "Let's do some progressive spending for a change," he said.

Park and floodlights
Next project -
Baseball groups say

Last year was artificial ice year. This year is floodlight year. "The main purpose of this meeting tonight is to get floodlights," were the opening remarks of chairman Chas. VanZant as he called an enthusiastic ball meeting to order Tuesday. What followed indicated the first steps towards implementing the plan to give Newmarket an up-to-date ball park.

An up-to-date ball park in a word means a class A diamond, both softball and baseball, floodlights and a stand of bleachers. After considerable discussion a 20-man board was suggested to carry the project through.

Members of the committee suggested represent the service clubs, Optimists and Lions, Vets and Legion, each of the town industries and chaps directly interested in baseball or softball. The suggested committee members will be contacted and asked to act. A meeting of the committee is expected early next week.

Cost of the project if carried through under present large scale plans would be approximately $18,000 to $20,000. Cost of a floodlighting system alone, class A softball, would be $7,800. In time additional lights could be added to make its use for floodlight baseball satisfactory. The stands, dressing rooms, refreshment booth, fencing and putting the diamond into shape would cover the balance. This would give Newmarket a ball field the equal of any in the province. A grant it was believed, could be obtained from the provincial government to assist in the financial end if it were put through as a community park.

Many suggestions were forthcoming as to possible ways to raise the money required. These will be taken up by the committee at its first meeting.

TEACH CANADIAN WAYS

Schomberg school Aids Dutch get papers

Dutch Canadians from 16 to 60 who live in the Holland Marsh have been studying English and learning about citizenship at Schomberg during the past year. At the informal classes every Thursday night in the Schomberg school, these new Canadians have shown a great interest and enjoyment in the course which is partly sponsored by the Schomberg Lions club.

R. C. Flynn and Miss F. Agar, teachers at the village school, have been instructing in these English language classes for the last two years. About 25 attend Mr. Flynn's class and 16 Miss Agar's class. Besides English, the students study civics and citizenship.

The Dutch school was instigated in the fall of 1948 when the Schomberg Lions club held its first "Dutch Night." Half the program at the "Dutch Night" was put on by the Lions and the Holland Marsh citizens themselves put on a show for the latter part of the program. Entertainment and refreshments promoted good friendship and enabled the people of both communities to get to know each other. "Dutch Night" was held again this year.

It was at the first meeting that Lister Dillane of Schomberg, chairman of the Lions boys and

Mr. and Mrs. Denne Bosworth and son of Newmarket were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peel.

Mr. and Mrs. Green and young daughter were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lunn, Pine Beach.

Arena Packed

Last Friday night was certainly a night of merriment and enjoyment when the Keswick Memorial Recreation Hall was packed to capacity for the play sponsored by the Lakeside Women's Institute and put on by the Scout and Cub mothers. Judging by the peals of laughter and shouts of excitement with which the drama was received, the audience was fully repaid for coming. The plot of the play, which revolved around a widow and a widower who had the audacity to marry without first consulting the wishes of their respective families, was one of various plots and plans to separate the newly weds. Resorting to fits, which by the way, rocked the hall with hilarity, and lunacy and ghostly visitations, the poor parents were nearly driven to distraction, not forgetting poor Nicodemus and Begonia Washington, the colored folk of the family who were so frightened by the ghost they literally turned black in the face. But all's well that ends well. So when the children managed to fall in love with each other, well, that was a horse of a different color. Everything was finally straightened out to everyone's satisfaction, including Aunt Lydia who took Horatio's picture into her own room.

Mrs. Arthur Pollock and Mrs. Wm. Tomlinson were the directors. Mrs. Cowieson conducted vocal choruses between the acts which were much enjoyed.

The ladies of the Institute wish to convey their sincere appreciation to all who came and to those who made the delicious home-made candy.

A carload of ladies attended the W.C.T.U. convention of York and Peel counties in Willard Hall last Wednesday. A signal honor was paid one of the Keswick ladies, Mrs. Perry Winch, Sr., when she was made a life member of the Provincial W.C.T.U. and presented with a life membership pin. Mrs. Winch was also made president of York and Peel convention.

Music Recital

The recital given on Monday evening by the pupils of Mrs. Harold Pollard and Mrs. Angus Cowieson was very successful. Instrumental and vocal selections showed much work and were a credit to both pupils and teachers. Mrs. Pollard and Mrs. Cowieson were presented with flowers by their pupils. The beautiful spring flowers in the chancel provided by Mr. E. Taylor made a lovely background for such a happy occasion and the audience was very appreciative.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Purdy returned from Florida last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bothwell left on Thursday morning for Sault Ste. Marie where Mr. Bothwell has taken a position.

We regret to report that Gerry Porter is in Toronto Western hospital.

(Delayed in Mail)

Special services for Mother's Day were planned by the Sunday-school executive of Keswick United church at a meeting last week. Morning service will include the Sacrament of Baptism.

Ladies of the United church Women's Association please note there will be no regular meeting in May, also the organization is publishing a cook book and all ladies of all groups are asked to send in their best recipes as soon as possible to Miss Eva Gilroy or Mrs. Percy Mahoney. The bazaar date has been set for July 26.

The Evening Auxiliary meeting held at the home of Mrs. Erwin Winch last Tuesday was attended by 21 ladies. A beautiful devotional service was conducted by Mrs. Gordon Carr and Mrs. Bernard Huntley's address on the spiritual training of our children was especially good. Mrs. Orvan Huntley and Mrs. T. Johnson were hostesses.

Miss Helen Fraser, Toronto, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Porter last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Cameron, Hallock, Minn., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. M. King.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Harron, Toronto, visited Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Waldon last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bothwell were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton.

Mr. Gordon Woods and Miss Elaine Woods, Toronto, visited their summer cottage here on Sunday and attended United church morning service.

Mr. and Mrs. George Marles, Glen and Audrey, Holt, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Harper.

Mr. Alan Stinson and friend, Bill Wilson, Newmarket, called on friends in this community on Sunday.

Mr. Bob Elgie, Toronto, was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Porter.

Mr. Franklin Morton, Newmarket, and Miss Mary Morton, Moulton College, Toronto, visited Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Morton last weekend.

Mrs. Joel Sedore and Mrs. Spatton were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Les Morton.

Miss Ruth Mary Winch was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Boothby.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins, Newmarket, were Sunday guests of Mrs. J. Hopkins.

Miss Joyce Porter was a Sunday dinner guest of Miss Mary Morton.

Mrs. George Campbell visited her family in Toronto last weekend.

"During the first week of May the children of all the schools of North Gwillimbury township will be tagging for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. This is a cause in which everyone should be interested since people right in our own district are being cared for by the C.N.I.B. Newmarket and district advisory committee has 33 registered blind in its care. Some of these receive instruction in craft work from a teacher who is sent out by the C.N.I.B. All are eligible for benefits from the Institute. Preventative work is also carried on, some children receiving care at clinics in Toronto and some have been supplied with glasses through the advisory board. Please be as generous as you can when the children call on you.

VANDORF NEWS

Bobby Burnett and Susan Dewsbury are home from school with the chicken pox. We hope they will soon be out again.

GET THEM IN BY MAY 6 SEZ CHAPMAN

Calling all Lake Simcoe softball clubs—deadline for entry is Saturday, May 6, says President Ross Chapman. To date seven teams are in: Vandorf, Pine Orchard, Zephyr, Mount Albert, Keswick, Queensville and Hope Still to be heard from are Sharon, Brownhill and Willow Beach.

Belhaven, who was represented at the inaugural meeting of the league last week, hasn't given a definite answer whether they will be seeking membership or not. Dot Menar and Coe McNeill are expected to have Willow Beach in before the week is out, but if you can take the rumors flying around at face value, neither Sharon nor Brownhill will have a team in this summer. Both have been hit hard by loss of players.

Whisperings as to players shifting here and there are going the rounds like mad and we'll try to catch up with them for next week. In the meantime, get those entries in men—a call to Mr. Chapman will do it—by Saturday. League executive and delegates from the teams convene at Sharon, Friday, May 12, to go over the players' list and put the schedule in order.

Britishers are considering ending the government monopoly of the air waves in that country. BBC may be faced with competition from private radio stations.

MAPLE HILL
Bld Farewell
A large crowd attended a shower and farewell party last Friday night in Maple Hill school in honour of Rev. and Mrs. Large and Paul. Gifts of money and many other useful things which
Mr. and Mrs. Large will need in South America were received. A program of singing and readings preceded the shower. Rev. and Mrs. Large thanked the people graciously following which lunch was served and everyone joined hands and sang "Blest Be the Tie that Binds".

Anniversary Services
Anniversary services will be held next Sunday, May 7, in Maple Hill Baptist church. This is the farewell also for Rev. and Mrs. Large and Paul as they leave for the Upper Amazon in South America.
Sunday-school will be held at 10.30 with the service following

At any rate, we put out the bird

a cute little sparrow was having
a dip and as I prepared tea,
through the window I saw the robins gather round. I'll be watching out my window till the snow flies next autumn to see my feathered friends enjoy their

enjoyment watching the birds—
and Old Puss never attempts to
harm them—thanks be!

MAY DAY THOUGHTS

Today, Monday, is May Day, and a dreary, cold day it has been; but this evening the sun shone for a short time, which raised our spirits somewhat—and the weather man says sunny and warmer for tomorrow!

If you swear by the moon, then perhaps that is a good omen, for the moon changes today. It is full moon tonight and you know many people claim the weather
at the change of the moon remains practically the same till the next change. If we are going to have any spring, then it can't delay much longer.

At any rate, we put out the bird bath this afternoon and cold or not, it wasn't many minutes till
a cute little sparrow was having
a dip and as I prepared tea,
through the window I saw the robins gather round. I'll be
watching out my window till the
snow flies next autumn to see
my feathered friends enjoy their daily bath. I do take wonderful
enjoyment watching the birds—
and Old Puss never attempts to
harm them—thanks be!

And I heard wild fowl going

Miss Mae Brooks, Rural Mission Board, will be guest speaker at Young People's Meeting at Union church on Friday evening,
May 12, at 8 o'clock. Miss Brooks is a most interesting speaker and it is hoped for a good attendance.

Miss Doreen Ash is nurse-in-training at Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, for three months.

BELL EXPANDS
SEE END SOON
TO WAITING

Many new telephones are now in operation in Newmarket as a result of a large construction program undertaken here by The Bell Telephone Company of Canada.

S. R. VanDusen, the company's manager in Newmarket, said today that 55 new telephones had been added in Armitage Heights and that plans are now underway to provide telephone service to all remaining waiting applicants
in the western part of Newmarket.

Since last fall, Bell workmen have been busily engaged in preparing underground channels for cables, erecting telephone poles and installing thousands of feet of wire and cable in the southwestern section of Newmarket and the Armitage district.

Although temporarily suspended due to February's heavy wind and sleet storm, the company's construction program to the north and east of Main St. is expected to be resumed shortly, he said. The manager pointed out there were only ten waiting applicants in this part of the municipality and that the new facilities which will be constructed and installed by the company this year would not only wipe out this waiting list but also provide sufficient facilities to take care of the needs of Newmarket for some time.

He also added that, as a result of the construction program, the company would be in a position by late summer to provide individual line service to party-line subscribers wishing a change.

at 11.30 and in the evening at 7.30. Rev. Large's subject in the morning will be "Why I am Leaving Maple Hill", and in the evening, "The Farewell". Miss Carol Knights, Toronto, will be soloist in the morning and the Kennedy Bros. quartet will be singing at the evening service.
All services are on daylight saving time.

A number of the school children took part in a program of music at Keswick one night last week.

Several from Maple Hill attended the Toronto Bible College graduation held in Varsity arena,
Toronto, last Thursday night.

Safety at home! Linoleum corners, sewn on carpets, keep them flat on the floor and lessen the danger of tripping.

Wildcats are risky

To an oil man a "wildcat" is a well drilled in an area where oil has never been found. Drilling a wildcat is a risky undertaking and a costly one. Some wells have cost more than a million dollars—and have not been successful.

For that reason oil men make as certain as they can, before drilling, that there is a good chance of finding oil. They use the most modern instruments and skills to locate each drilling site; but still the odds are 20 to one against them. Only about one wildcat in 20 becomes a producer.

Over the past 30 years oil men have worked continuously against these odds. In western Canada Imperial alone drilled 134 wells—all dry—before the Leduc field was discovered in 1947.

But the end result has been new oil for Canada and benefits for Canadians. There are thousands of new jobs. Millions of U.S. dollars are being saved as the need for imported oil lessens. And,
as another natural resource moves toward full development, the Canadian standard of living climbs higher.

These are real benefits to Canadians and they will increase as more oil is found. But to find more oil and to spread the advantages it brings, oil men must continue to work against long odds.

Sometimes a job that must be done can't be done without great risks.

Bringing you oil is a big job
... and a costly one

About Canada's Oil—Canada's proven oil reserves now amount to about one billion barrels, as compared with only 72 million barrels in 1946.

It is estimated the oil industry will spend $150 millions for exploration and development in western Canada this year.

Last year Imperial drilled or shared in the drilling of 70 wildcat wells.

Wells drilled by Imperial to find and produce oil in Canada during 1949 totalled 231 miles in depth.

The Lions Minstrel Show is just about over. One more performance, at Mount Albert Sports Day, and the wigs go back to the mothballs, the throat gargles will be put away for another year, and wives will stop fretting over burnt cork on shirt collars.

Oh yes, the kids will learn to recognize their daddies all over again for during the show's duration and the extensive rehearsals that preceded it, poppa was seldom at home.

The show went to Schomberg on Wednesday and Thursday, it was at Beeton in the new hall that a community endeavor raised. The cast likes to think they were never better than at Beeton, probably because the acoustics of the hall made the singing a good deal sharper than at home. At that, the smile on Bill Grieg's face as he led the chorus a capella (if you'll pardon the term) in the strains of "Now Is The Hour" was never kinder.

The members of the chorus can pretty well tell how the show is going by the expression on Bill's face. His scowls are terrible to see. His smiles are like the sun breaking through April storm clouds. At Beeton, his face was beautiful.

We were all very much impressed by Beeton's children. Two solid rows of seats directly across the front were jammed with them, in age around six to ten years. They were most responsive and the intentness with which they followed the show was a reward in itself.

We rather imagine that Art Evans occupies a place comparable to Hopalong Cassidy in their affections. They shouted a first encore when Art finished his soft shoe dance and then demanded a second. After the show, they mobbed him like Stage Door Johnnies and Janies, wanted his autograph, wanted him to dance again, wanted him to promise to come back next year.

One cute button with a lovely head of hair framing a grave little face, told Art in her soft voice: "We are ever so pleased that you came and we enjoyed you very much. Please come back again."

We certainly can't refuse that invitation.

The show has been a source of intense pleasure for all who participated in it. It was the baby of Alex Eves but he brought it up in such a way that all of us felt we had a share in directing its growth. Such unobtrusive direction is a rare virtue and it meant a happy, co-operative effort. Bill Grieg directed the music with a discipline we all enjoyed. He was doing his best by us; we couldn't help but try our best for him.

Two babies were born to Minstrel fathers during the course of the show. Their timing was deplorable but neither Jimmie Sleight nor Austin Brammer permitted these incidents to interfere, a notable contribution. Claire Blodzie, faithful attendant of rehearsals, wrenched his back a day before opening night and was unable to appear until the Friday performance in Newmarket when he arrived with an expression of pain on his face and a determination to go on with the show even if he landed in the hospital.

All of us made some sacrifices, mentioned here only because it helps demonstrate the fine spirit that existed backstage, a spirit which made the effort memorable.

But now, before we wind this up, we should like to report "How Persistence Won The Day" or "Virtue Triumphs" or "You Can't Keep A Good Man Down."

In this column earlier we recorded how Grant Dillane muffed his big chance, to blow the whistle during the singing of Alabama Bound. Now we are happy to report Grant has redeemed himself. Alex chose him to swing a night stick and generally act like a cop during the crap shooting scene in the second act. And Grant came through nobly. He strolled across the stage and never once tripped. Well done, Grant.

The Editorials:

The late Albert Victor Nolan

Mr. Albert Victor Nolan, late editor of the Stouffville Tribune, was an ornament to his profession, a good citizen who accepted public office as a responsibility every citizen should at one time share, a far-seeing man with the courage of his convictions. His active support of reforestation played no small part in the establishment of Vivian Forest, now cited most frequently as an example of what should be done to restore barren land.

We knew Mr. Nolan sometimes as a friendly editorial opponent, at other times as a staunch supporter, at all times as a contemporary whose editing of the Stouffville Tribune was a model of how a weekly newspaper can be made to serve its readers. His loss will not only be felt by those who knew him intimately through the columns of his paper, but by his editorial associates the breadth of Canada.

Under his hand, the Stouffville Tribune became the seven times winner of the Joseph T. Clarke Memorial Award for newspapers of its circulation class. Yet with this professional competence, it was a readers' newspaper too, with the largest circulation of any paper in a centre the size of Stouffville.

To his widow, and his son Charles who, during the past 13 years, has been his publishing partner, we extend our sincere regrets in his passing.

Not 'Inevitable' at all

The Globe and Mail simply cannot bring itself to believe there are two sides to the amalgamation issue. With its habitual pretention to omniscience, it announces that it is "too late for argument". An editorial Saturday under this title announces:

"The ultimate fact about amalgamation, annexation, unification, or whatever it may be called, is that it is inevitable. It is one of the stages in the development of every large, modern city, and this happens to be the time when Greater Toronto must face the facts of its present and its future. Looked at honestly and without prejudice, these facts lead but to one conclusion—that only by union can the equality of services, balancing of tax revenues and comprehensive planning necessary to a great urban area, be achieved."

This is pure drivel and the Globe and Mail should know it. Toronto wants to amalgamate the suburbs because of the tax revenues they represent. If the city was concerned only with "equality of service" and "comprehensive planning", it could have had them long ago through inter-municipal commissions of the type which exist under county administration. "Balancing of tax revenues" is the vaguest sort of phrasing. Does it mean that the suburbs should help pay the city's costs? If so, why? There is no reasonable answer to that question.

But to insist that amalgamation is inevitable simply because of precedent is the height of casuistry. The bigger Toronto becomes, the bigger it must become to support itself. If the city is permitted to amalgamate the suburbs now, it will be but a foretaste of what will happen 20 years hence. Big cities are economically unsound, as the experience of Toronto itself indicates. Why then, encourage further growth? It offers no permanent solution to Toronto's basic problem of financing itself by realty taxes.

Now is the time to check Toronto's growth, not 20 years from now when present difficulties will be multiplied. Why encourage the fallacy that more land will mean the city's economic relief and the suburbs and the rest of the county whose taxes will be all raised if amalgamation is permitted should make the willing sacrifice?

Now is the time to explore the possibilities of income and other forms of taxation as the means to maintain the city at its present size. There is no reason why the Globe and Mail's "inevitability" because of precedent should persist in blinding its readers to alternatives.

Parking meters poll

The results of The Era and Express poll on the parking meters shows an approximate majority of two to one in favor of the meters. Of some pertinence, however, is the fact that the majority of those who oppose the meters are out of town shoppers representative of a large share of the business done by Newmarket businessmen.

Many of those opposing meters objected to them as an irritation quite out of proportion to the good they do. No one likes to be subjected to the impersonal restriction of a clock on the end of a pole. It is a consideration worth making note of in a shopping centre where services are sold as well as goods.

The state is the servant, not the master, of the people; the state is their guarantee against infringement on their rights, their agent in international and national issues; it is not the function of the state to assume the direction of those activities which rest on individual choice.

Office Cat reports

Catnips By Ginger

The trouble with the trout last weekend was that they would not bite and among other things they were not even in the streams so's they could bite.

Me and my uncle, Col. Wellington Fitz-Privy, who is an ardent angler with many operational hours logged and who holds the distinguished five-pound trout award and bar, set off for the back bush Friday.

We stayed overnight at the cabin of a trapper who is also good at making axe handles, poaching deer, cutting ice and digging holes behind cottages at an hourly rate. He is what you might say a versatility man of the back country. He is also steeped in an earthen type of philosophy.

On Saturday morning, the speckled trout season opened and uncle Fitz and I were prepared for all with our fly rods, extra socks and Smith Bros. cough drops to ward off the virus beasts. The district game warden shot off his starting pistol at dawn and all the city anglers shot away over the muddy roads in their multi-cylinder automobiles. The local dead pan wise men sat sagely and watched the advance into the jungles with calculating eyes. No doubt they were computing hourly rates into incomes they would derive from extracting stuck automobiles, leading fishers out of bogs or hiring themselves out as stretcher bearers.

As an encouraging parting remark, our trapper host said "Ye cin't kitch nothin' yit."

"Come, old boy," said Uncle Wellington. "They have opened the season today so there must be hoards of fish or else why would they open the season, eh old boy?" Aside to me, "You know the fellows up here don't hold much upstairs or else why would they be living in these back, barren, foresaker hills?" "Or else why is right, Uncle Col. Wellington Fitz-Privy," said I.

So we fished and we fished and fished. The streams were high and cold and we fished. There were no fish and we fished.

Occasionally I bird watched when Uncle Privy was not looking. But the city anglers that day were only lured by imaginations full of lurking trout in empty streams. All the time the trout were still enjoying their winter sanctuary in the lakes for nobody had remembered to tell them that the fishing season had opened that day.

Had they been notified, the trout would have been much more considerate, I expect. For trout are always considerate but the government has made such a bosh of a poor thing out of the game laws and at opening the season that the trout just don't know where they are at. Besides what trout would want to be bothered with a game law for? He does not want to be socialized any more than you and I do.

We returned to the cabin of our host, the trapper, wet and raw and hungry as she wolves after a long winter.

"Told ya," said the trapper.

Anglers in the bush are a subject of much contemplation. Uncle Wellington may poke fun at the brain powers of the bush dweller. Yet think on it. The city angler fights at life all winter till his nervous system is like a set of overtight piano wires just so's he can go fishing and enjoy himself. The trapper enjoys himself all year round.

The Top Six Inches

From Shelburne district comes the suggestion of co-operative nursing homes. Shelburne district has one of the most progressive co-operative groups in Ontario.

Some 150 years ago Toronto was known as "Muddy York." Yonge St. was a trail through the bush. Along this trail were settlements of people with a system of living that we today would do well to consider.

When a young couple were married by way of a working bee, a log house and stable were built and some land cleared. This was given to the young people to help them start. The elders of the settlements saw that there was always food and shelter for everyone.

The system was that each individual, according to his ability, contributed to the welfare of the whole group. This did not mean that each one had the same amount of wealth or goods, but it did mean that everyone had an obligation to the settlement to see that there was no one in need.

In dealing with each other, justice and fairness had to be practised — not that there was any binding rule but because it was the right thing to do. A man's word was his bond. There was no such thing as a backer or co-signer to a note. If anyone did not comply with this way of living and doing business, or dealt unfairly, they were brought before the whole settlement and adjustment made.

The people complied with these things because it was right and they could not get along in a new country alone. As the country became more thickly populated, people began to break away from community assistance. And we started in for every man for himself. This system has not worked out too well. "Everyone for himself" has worked out fine for some and not so good for others. Now we are trying by organized co-operation to bring back in some part the security and fair dealing that our pioneer people had.

We read today that one man can buy controlling or voting shares and control many industries. This cannot happen in co-operatives. In co-operatives, one member—one vote and no more. Sometimes this controlling interest in industry does not work too well for the consumer. The principle of co-operation is justice and fairness to all. In some cases in applying co-operation the principle is not held to closely enough and a wrong impression is given, contributing to the welfare of others built character in our pioneer people.

To study and apply co-operation is to contribute, not to receive. True, you can belong to a co-op, and not have any character building, but you cannot study and apply co-operation without your scope of thinking becoming broader; your sense of duty to society and your community developing. Co-operation can take you out of what could be called a rut of thinking. Organized co-operation can embrace every phase of our life or in other words is a way of life.

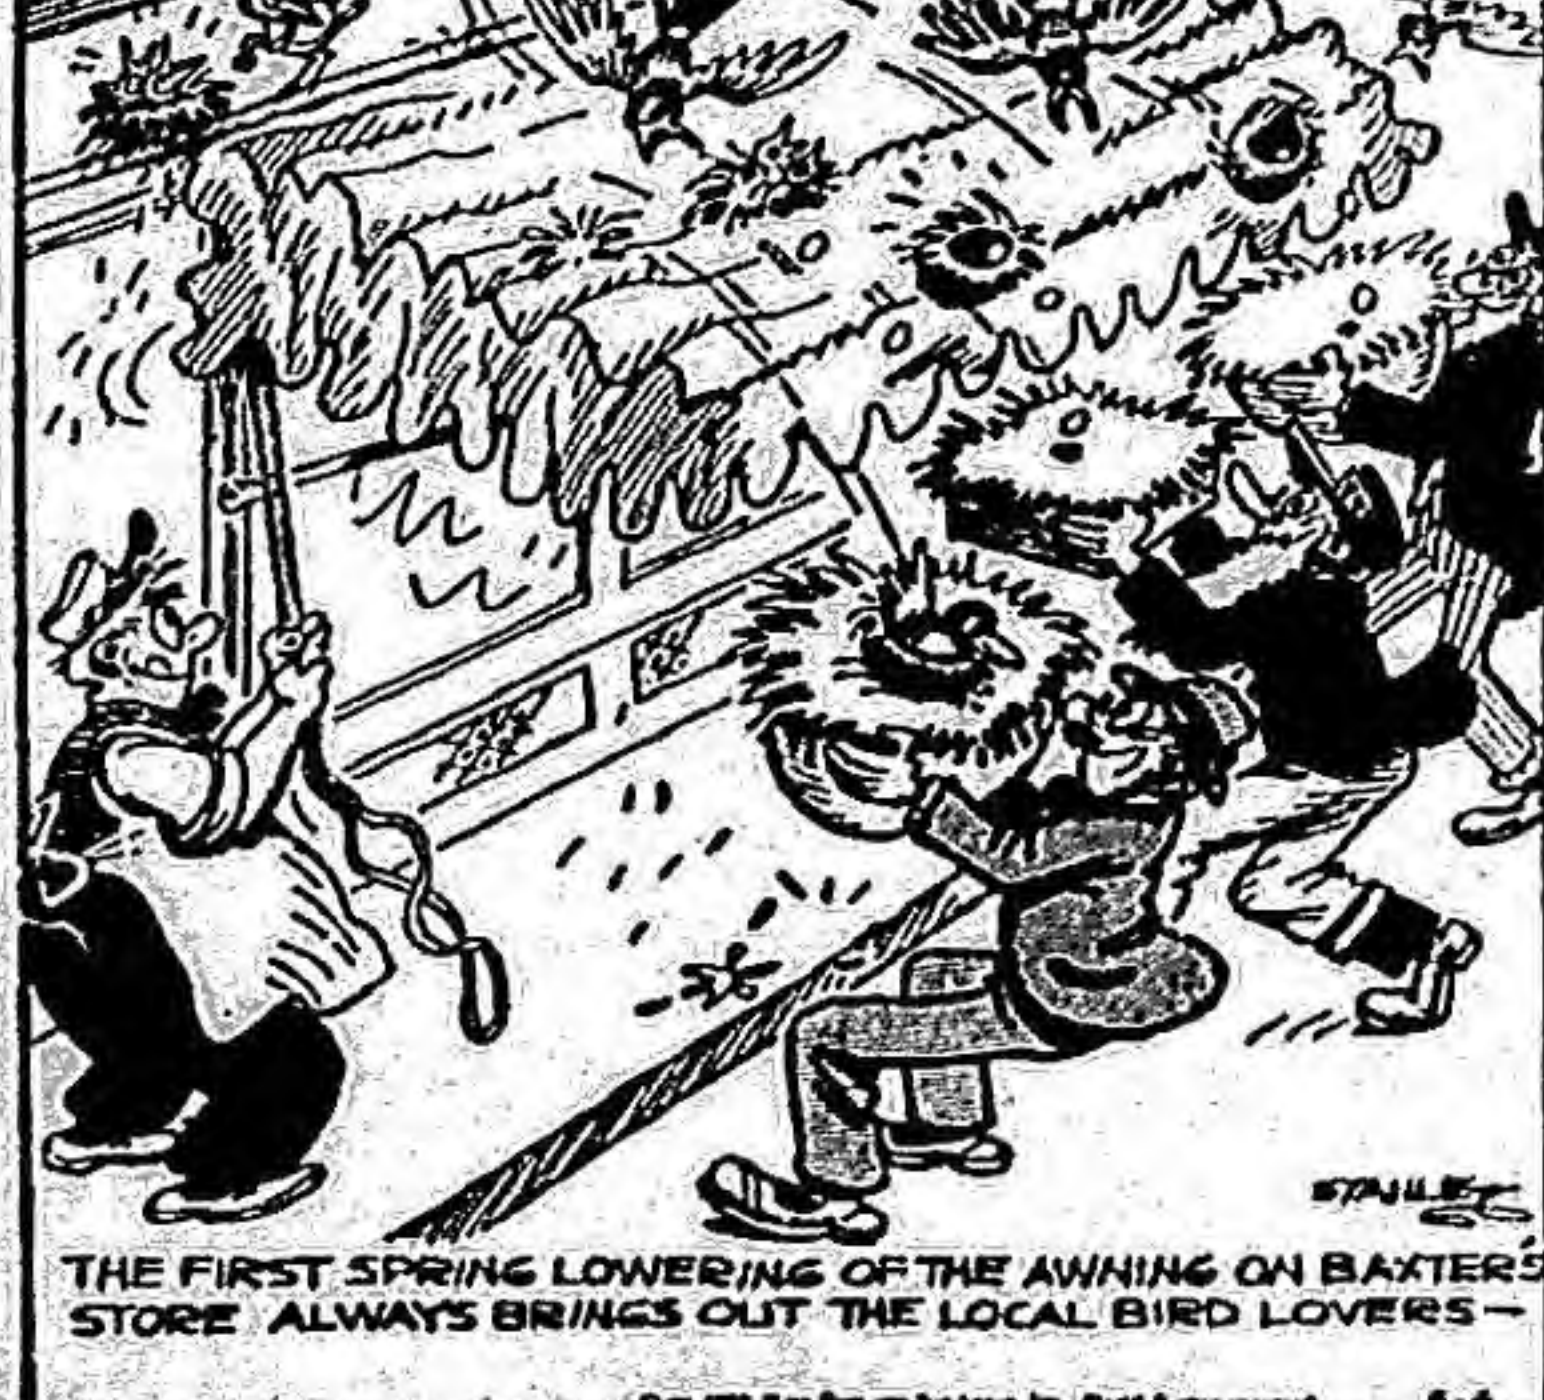

To some people co-operation is a system of doing business that you can by some way get more for what you have to sell and buy for less. To study co-operation is to gain knowledge, to give instruction in a better way to live, and to contribute something to the welfare of our fellow men. Cheerio.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carr attended the beekeepers' association meeting in Deer Park school, Toronto, on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Merv Connell, Keswick, visited Mrs. Roy Carr on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Lepard, Newmarket, are staying with Mrs. Lepard's mother, Mrs. John Cain, for a few weeks.

The Cheerio club met on Saturday evening in the Sunday-school room of the United church with 32 ladies present. Mrs. H. Shillinglaw gave a demonstration on making angel cakes. Mrs. Knott and Mrs. Willbee were in charge of the program. The club is giving $10 to the cancer fund. Plans for the annual picnic were made.

The W.A. of the United church will hold a supper in the church on Tuesday evening, May 9, from 5:30 to 8.

Mrs. H. E. Johnson The funeral service for Mrs. H. E. Johnson was held in the chapel on Tuesday afternoon and then to Mount Albert cemetery. Mrs. Johnson went to Toronto to make her home when Dr. Johnson passed away here some years ago. She died suddenly on Thursday of last week at her home. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Chapman, Penetanguishene. Mrs. Johnson was formerly Ethel Todd, Penetang.

W.M.S. Meeting The W.M.S. of the United church held its May meeting on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Theaker. Nineteen ladies were present and the program celebrating the 25th anniversary was carried through by many taking part in a review of the work and how it has advanced. In our society, we have had C.G.I.T. and Explorers organized and a mission band, badly in need of a leader which we still hope to get. The ladies have quilted several quilts for the bazaar and to send overseas. Their Easter thank offering is about $37. So through the year we feel we have accomplished much.

Mrs. H. Ross, Lansing, Elfric and Muriel Ross, Toronto, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Mainprize.

Sunday, May 14, will be family Sunday in all churches and the Sunday-school and church service will be held at 11 o'clock with special music by the Junior Bible Class. There will also be a baptismal service.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison spent several days last week at the home of their son, George, at Stouffville.

Mr. Dawson Dike moved into his new house on Alice St. on Tuesday and Mr. Arthur Wagg moved from his home near Leaskdale to his new home purchased from Mr. Dike.

Mrs. Vi Shields is home from Toronto for a while again with her sister, Mrs. Harman.

Part of the horticultural options have been delivered to members. You may still become a member and get a fall option and now, too, is the time to rake up lawns, etc., also the street along our property looks so much nicer all cleaned up and your town as a whole is more beautiful.

TIME TO EARN
THOSE HORT. SOC.
OPTIONS, DISCOUNTS

With the final arrival of warm, spring-like weather, gardening is again uppermost in the minds of most people. The deadline for accepting orders on nursery stock through the Newmarket Horticultural Society has been set at Monday, May 15.

As has been the custom in the society, members are able again this year to purchase all types of nursery stock through the society at a ten percent discount. Many orders have been received and filled to date, reports the purchasing agent, Wilfred Oliver, who is the man to contact regarding your order—phone 8013. The stock is being purchased from Brookdale-Kingsway nurseries, Bowmanville, as last year's dealings with that organization proved satisfactory. To be eligible for the discount one must be a paid-up member of the society.

A regular membership ticket costs $1 and with a year's subscription to the Canadian magazine, "Your Garden and Home", it is $1.50. Membership convenor is George Hoare.

News of the W.I.
In North York

News for this column must be in the office Monday night. Copy must be written as briefly as possible and confined to news and reports. Other than routine reports and announcements will be printed separately.

The May meeting of the Mount Albert branch will be held on Thursday, May 11, in the town hall at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Stokes will give a report of the Guelph conference she is attending this week at the agricultural college. All ladies invited and the meetings will be held in the town hall.

The Kettleby branch held its annual business meeting in the community hall on Wednesday, April 26. The following new officers were elected for the coming year: pres., Mrs. Fred Schmidt; vice-pres., Mrs. Norman Blatchford; 2nd vice-pres., Mrs. Robert Jewitt; sec.-treas., Mrs. Harry Burns.

Three ladies from Brampton West Institute were guests of a well attended meeting of Lakeside branch on Tuesday, April 25, at the home of Mrs. O. W. Huntley. Mrs. G. Dixon, after telling something of their branch, gave an interesting talk on hobbies showing samples of handiwork, needlework, etc. Mrs. A. McKinney spoke on "Appreciation and Personalities," telling of some very interesting persons and displayed articles in wood, glass, etc., they had made, and urged an appreciation of the handicrafts of our own people, of the Indian population, and those from other countries who now make their homes here. Mrs. Cameron thanked Lakeside ladies for their kindness in inviting them to the meeting.

The roll call was "Pay your fee." Mrs. Gordon Carr gave a humorous reading, "A Call at the Doctor's Office." Mrs. P. Mahoney gave a short paper on Current Events. Mrs. R. Serrick then conducted a contest, "Who Am I," after which a social time was enjoyed over a delicious lunch.

The April meeting of Snowball branch was held on Wednesday, April 26, at the home of Mrs. H. Patrick with 25 members and two visitors. The meeting was opened by the president with the ode and collect. Roll-call, "Name a raw material and an article manufactured from it," was well given also "pay your fee." Minutes of last meeting were read by Miss Eileen Casey. During the business session donations were voted to the following: Institute of the Blind, Cancer Fund, March of Dimes to fight polio and U.N. I.C.E.F.

Plans were made for several to visit the ladies of York County Home on May 13 and take them flowering plants. Mrs. Reddick, Miss E. Casey and Miss Marie Morning will attend the meeting at Guelph on Saturday, May 6. A letter from Hospital Aid, Newmarket, was read by Mrs. E. Copson with notice of aid meeting Tuesday, May 2, and a tea Wednesday, May 10, which a few ladies plan to attend.

Senior captain Cecil Bonar spoke to the ladies regarding the campaign for Red Shield of Salvation Army. A canvass will be made shortly in this district. Reports of standing committee convenors and the secretary-treasurer were given on last year's work, showing a lot had been accomplished by all.

Election of officers for the coming year was conducted by Mrs. C. Connor. The following were elected: hon. pres., Mrs. Leo Cull; past pres., Mrs. H. Mills; pres., Mrs. Herb Patrick; first vice pres., Mrs. H. Morning; second vice pres., Mrs. B. Smith; sec.-treas., Mrs. E. Copson; assist. sec.-treas., Miss Marie Morning; district director, Miss Hazel Webb; directors, Mrs. E. Reddick, Mrs. N. Mitchell, Mrs. C. Copson.

Program convenor, Mrs. Aubrey Wood; standing committees, agriculture and Canadian industries, Mrs. Art Kerr; citizenship and education, Mrs. Howard Morning; community activities and public relations, Mrs. W. Gould; assistant, Mrs. W. Farnen; historical research, Mrs. N. Mitchell; home economics, Mrs. E. Reddick; flower committee, Mrs. Dennis Storey, Mrs. B. Kirtton, Mrs. W. Nesbitt and Mrs. Barr; pianists, Mrs. W. Davison, Mrs. J. Adams; auditors, Mrs. Connor and Mrs. Bill Williams.

Mrs. E. Reddick, a past president, then conducted the installation ceremony from the hand book which was impressive. The May meeting will be held at the home of Miss Eileen Casey. A plant exchange in aid of the flower fund will be held at this meeting. A social half-hour with lunch by hostesses was enjoyed.

The April meeting of Queensville branch was held at the home of Mrs. C. Doane on April 26. The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. S. Eves. Roll call: "Pay your fee." Routine business followed. Reports from each standing convenor were read. The nominating committee presented its slate of officers as follows: hon. pres., Mrs. S. Eves; pres., Mrs. F. Weddel; 1st vice-pres., Mrs. G. Wilmet; 2nd vice-pres., Mrs. L. Wellman; 3rd vice-pres., Mrs. N. Mabbett; sec.-treas., Miss F. Cranley; assist. sec.-treas., Mrs. J. L. Smith; District director, Mrs. J. B.

Aylward; sec., Blue Cross Dept., Mrs. A. J. Milne; assist. sec., Blue Cross Dept., Mrs. J. B. Aylward; press corr., Mrs. C. Milsted; pianist, Mrs. H. Leadbetter; assist. pianist, Miss H. Doane;

OAK RIDGES NEWS

BOND AVENUE
RESIDENTS ASK
BETTER ROAD

A deputation representing residents of some 39 homes on Bond Avenue asked King twp. council for improvements to the 1,000 feet of roadway for that section of Oak Ridges lying within the township. It was revealed road traffic there is considerably heavier with the rapid increase in home building.

When it became clear to the deputation that some $500 or $600 had been recently spent by council in repaving Bond Ave., they were advised to pay taxes on a frontage basis which would determine the amount of money to be spent on road repairs, yearly. Reeve Elton Armstrong said he suggested a petition be signed by Bond Ave. taxpayers requesting formation of local improvement planning scheme by the township council. "Every dollar raised for roads would then be spent on roads, for the benefit of the area. "The present revenue from taxpayers here does not justify greater expenditure," stated the reeve.

Near Projector Purchase

Forty dollars profit was realized from a showing of national film board pictures of high calibre presented at Oak Ridges school, Monday evening, May 1, under the auspices of the Home and School Association. Two hundred children thoroughly enjoyed the early showing at 7 p.m. while adults crowded the classroom for the later presentation. Mr. George DeWitt was in charge of the film. Proceeds will go toward purchase of a film strip projector for the school. On Saturday, May 6, it is hoped a spring tea and baking sale given by the association at Ridge Inn will add enough to the projector fund to complete its purchase.

H. & S. to Elect Officers

On Monday, May 8, at the school, Oak Ridges Home and School Association will elect officers and hear annual reports. Mrs. Bob Woolley has been president for 1950-51. Officials will be sworn in by Mrs. Taylor, the head of York county council of the Ontario Federation of the Home and School.

Takes Salute

Mrs. D. R. Gunn, Oak Ridges, York Central District commissioner for Guides and Brownies, and Clarke Locke, district commissioner for Scouts and Cubs, took the salute from approximately 600 boys and girls in the colorful parade and service held by York Central District at Aurora last Sunday. Oak Ridges was well represented in the display. Scout Master Fred Lynd led his group and color party. Captain Phillis McKenna and Lieut. Joan Appleton headed the Guide company of 20 while acting Tawny Owl Frances Woods, Richvale, was in charge of 18 Brownies. Oak Ridges newly formed Lions club provided a half dozen personal cars for transporting the boys and girls and leaders.

Cater for Supper

St. John's Anglican W.A. will cater for a supper being held at the parish hall by the Teachers' Associations of Whitechurch and Markham twps. About 150 are expected to attend on Wednesday, May 17. Mrs. Maurie Beynon is W.A. president.

Christ church Ladies' Guild will hold its May meeting in the parish hall on Tuesday, May 9. Will all members try and come early.

There will be no service at Christ church next Sunday as Nobleton church is to be reopened after undergoing repairs for some weeks. All members are asked to attend either morning or evening service there.

Sunday-school will be held at the usual hour of 2 p.m. D.S.T.

BELHAVEN

Mr. Lorne and Reg Denny visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pollard, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Kay visited in the community a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman King and Floyd spent Sunday afternoon at Mr. Ken Hastings' home, Brougham.

Bethel church is to be raised and a new wall put under it. Belhaven Women's Institute will meet in the hall May 9 at 2:30 p.m. Convenor is Mrs. O. Smith and hostesses are Mrs. R. Stiles, Mrs. D. Davidson and Mrs. Harold Winch. The roll-call will be "Pay your fee" and "exchange of slip or perennial root".

Don't forget your donation for the Salvation Army which is to be brought to this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kay and girls visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis at Lakeview on Sunday.

The club girls under the leadership of Mrs. Kydd entertained their mothers Saturday to afternoon tea. The girls are making wonderful progress.

A few from this district attended the dance at the Briar Golf club on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey King visited in the community Saturday. Congratulations to Belhaven boys' bowling group who were successful for the second year in winning the much coveted cup.

How to buy
a used car

By HOWARD MORTON

Had a friend of mine in last week with the used car he had recently purchased. When he had first bought it it looked like a really neat car but, when it had been driven only a few thousand miles, it soon developed a sad look and the quarter panels and fenders looked as if the rats had been at them.

We went over this job for my friend and the things we discovered were disgusting. In some parts where rusting had developed the seller had pasted masking tape over the holes and then spray painted the tape.

The seller, having no fixed place of abode or established business, had disappeared and so my friend had to repair his car at a loss of approximately $100. He should still have a motor job done, and the front end aligned. However, the value of the car does not warrant the expense and so my friend is really stuck.

The advice I gave my customer that day, I am going to repeat in the hope it may save someone a similar experience.

First: know your dealer and buy only from a firm in which you have complete confidence. If this point is observed it is doubtful that you will ever be left holding the bag. The integrity of the seller is actually your best guarantee.

Secondly: we have a policy here at Morton Bros. your local Pontiac-Buick dealer, which will really protect you, and most dealers will extend the same courtesy. "With any used car offered for sale here we extend you the privilege of having the same inspected by the mechanic of your choice" and it's just as simple as that.

Yes, the used cars here at Morton Bros. are making us lots of friends and in our opinion represent the next best thing to a new Pontiac.

However, we are having trouble getting enough real good used cars. At present writing we have a 1948 Pontiac sedan, a 1941 Pontiac coach and several older cars. We also have an excellent 1948 Pontiac sedan delivery. For the buyer who wants a light truck and car combined, it is really a bargain.

The Vauxhall have caught on well and at present we are sold out. Perhaps we will have more supplies in a short time—why not book a demonstration? Personally, I would rather have a new 6-cylinder Vauxhall at $1,850 complete than pay a big price for a used car with probably 15-20 thousand miles on it.

Lake Simcoe Home and Properties (Don Christian) Jackson's Point—Ontario

Among our properties for sale, the following listings should be of interest to the people of this district, and we would welcome your interest.

50-acre farm, with 7-room brick residence, barn and driving shed, located first farm south of the Deer Park school, having frontage on three roads, heavy clay loam, suitable for subdivision for building lots if desired, market gardening or country home. Easy terms available—small down payment only required. c1w18

3 one building lots size 4' x 200', located on the former Sutton public school grounds. Price $450 each. Terms available. c1w18

38-acre subdivision immediately west of the village of Sutton, bounded by 1,000 feet of railway track on the east, the new Mitchell subdivision road, and the Catering road, having about 4,000 feet frontage on travelled roads. This subdivision offers a combination opportunity for industrial development, as well as locations for residential development. A golden opportunity for a group purchase for speculation and development of the next expansion of the village of Sutton. Several good industrial inquiries have been received. This location would also be approved for a National Housing development site. Our only reason for offering this subdivision for sale is the extent of our other lake shore properties which require full time attention. We will be glad to discuss price and terms and will co-operate with interested parties in this development. c1w18

TOWN OF NEWMARKET
NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS
Residents of the town of Newmarket are notified that the provisions of the by-law relating to dogs will be strictly enforced. The by-law provides in part, that: Any dog running at large, contrary to the provisions of this by-law, may be seized and impounded or killed or sold or otherwise disposed of by any police constable, poundkeeper or by such other persons as may be duly authorized so to do. Except where any dog is on the premises of the owner or keeper thereof, any dog which is not on a leash and under the immediate charge and control of a competent person, shall for the purposes of this by-law be deemed to be running at large. The foregoing provisions apply whether or not the dog is licensed, and will be strictly enforced. Dogs which have been impounded and not redeemed within 48 hours will be destroyed. This by-law will be in force from May 1 to September 30 inclusive. Dated at Newmarket this 27th day of April, 1950.
Byron Burbridge, Chief of Police. c2w17

TOWN OF NEWMARKET

IN MEMORIAM
Glover—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother who passed away April 7, 1949. One year has passed since that sad day. When one we loved was called away; God took her home, it was His will. Within our hearts she liveth still. Ever remembered by the family.

Haight—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Wm. Penn Haight, who passed away May 4, 1941. Gone from us, but leaving memories. Death can never take away. Memories that will always linger. While upon this earth we stay. Lovingly remembered by his wife and family.

Lundy—In ever loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Mary C. Lundy, who passed away May 8, 1913 in her 91st year. In memory of one with whom our paths have led to part. Who yet is never far from us. But always close in heart. Whose cherished memory lives on. To comfort us today. And keep that dear one in our thoughts. Each step along life's way. Sadly missed by daughter, Lettie, son-in-law, Ben and grandchildren, Laura, Burt and family.

Wilmet—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Gordon Wilmet, who passed away May 3, 1948. Past his suffering, past his pain; Cease to weep, for tears are vain. He who suffered is at rest. Gone to heaven with the blest. Ever remembered by a loving wife, Cora, and daughter, Gwendolyn.

CARD OF THANKS
We sincerely and humbly thank all our relatives, neighbors and friends for their kindness, cards, and help in this sad bereavement. It is at a time like this that we know we have wonderful friends and one's troubles are shared and comforted by others. Thank you. Everett and May Miller and Dorothy.

CARD OF THANKS
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Cutting, R. R. 3, King, wish to thank Drs. Rose and Urquhart, nurses of York County hospital, Snowball United Church Women's Association, the Women's Institute and relatives for gifts sent during their son's stay in the hospital.

CARD OF THANKS
Mr. and Mrs. Charles LeGoode wish to thank their neighbors and relatives of Gormish St. for the lovely good-bye gift which was deeply appreciated.

CARD OF THANKS
Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Brand, R. R. 1, Cedar Valley, take this opportunity to thank their kind neighbors and friends who contributed to the lovely gift which they are going to take away to adorn their new home in Deseronto.

CARD OF THANKS
Mrs. Stanley Playter and family wish to thank their many relatives, friends and neighbors for the kindness, sympathy and beautiful floral tributes extended during their recent sad bereavement in the loss of a dear husband and father.

CARD OF THANKS
The family of the late Mr. R. Rahm wish to thank the neighbors and relatives, Newmarket Canadian Legion, Rev. F. A. Daw, for the kind expressions of sympathy, and floral tributes extended to them in their recent bereavement. Mr. Rahm and son.

AWARD PRIZES TO NUTRITION ESSAY WINNERS
Prizes were awarded to the winners of the essay contest on nutrition which the Newmarket board of health had sponsored in the elementary schools at the meeting of the Home and School Association in the town hall April 25.
The contest was under the direction of Dr. Lowell Dales, medical officer of health, and was divided into three classes: junior—grades 1 to 4; intermediate, grades 5 and 6; and senior, grades 7 and 8. Three prizes were given in each class.
In making the presentation, Mrs. Leslie Boynton, health convener of the association and member of the board of health, explained that neither the names of the schools nor the children were known to the judges. Mrs. Boynton said that the board was very pleased with the interest shown in the contest by the children and thanked the teachers for their co-operation with the project.
Winners in the contest were (in order): junior, Thomas Wadsworth, Donald Cane, Murray Callaghan; intermediate, Judith Carter, Rodney Smart, Donna Jean Casey; senior, Donald Jackson, Pasty Cock and Margaret Winter.

OBITUARY
Marshall Edgar Morton
Funeral services for Marshall Edgar Morton were held in Calgary on Friday, April 21, at the Park Memorial Funeral Chapel. Interment was at Queen's Park cemetery, North Calgary. Mr. Morton, whose home was in Wilkie, Sask., died in a Calgary Nursing Home where he has been a patient since last November. He had been ill for a little more than a year following a severe stroke in March, 1949.
He was born at Kettleby, the son of the late Dan Morton. Later the family lived at Belhaven. He came west to Saskatchewan to homestead and after some experience in farming, went to work with the Canadian Pacific Railway. He completed 35 years of railroad experience, mostly as a conductor, when he retired in 1948. He made his home in Wilkie and for the most part ran on trains which were out of Wilkie.
He was a member of the Independent Order of Odd-fellows and of the Brotherhoods of Railway Trainmen and Conductors. The latter brotherhood was represented among the pallbearers. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Gordon Lapp, formerly of Keswick, who had met Mr. Morton when the latter was visiting in Keswick three years ago. During his illness in Calgary, Mr. Lapp had called on Mr. Morton.
He is survived by his son, Edgar Ellis Morton of Calgary; his daughter, Mrs. Grace Blanchard, Long Beach, California; his sister, Mrs. Percy Blair, Calgary; and two brothers, Norman of Columbia Falls, Montana, and Fred of St. Catharines, Ont.; also by his second wife, Cecilia, of Wilkie. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Morton were present in Calgary to join with Mrs. Blair and her family and Mr. Edgar Morton and his family at the funeral services.
Mrs. Friend Morton, Keswick, now 85 years old, is the only surviving aunt and the first cousins are Harold and Erwin Winch, Belhaven, Perry, Jack and Alma Winch and Francis Morton, Keswick, Morton Winch, Orillia, Mrs. Lelia Rolph, Newmarket, and Mrs. M. E. Hamilton, Miss Edith and Mr. Wilton Morton, formerly of Sutton and Keswick, now living in Toronto.

Got that gift for Mom

By BETTY BRAMMER

Time to think of something for Mom on her day, May 14. Like a few suggestions? We saw various blouses at Hooker's in crepe, some with pearl button closing in pink, grey and white. A pretty hankie, perhaps with a lacey border, to tuck in a pocket or sleeve, is nice. Flowers make wonderful gifts and just now there are many varieties in the flower shops in Newmarket. Snapdragons, roses and daffodils in cut flowers and pots of beautiful cineraria and calceolaria are popular. Other suggested gifts, all seen in Newmarket shops, are gloves, soft scarves and perfume. Don't forget a pretty card—Rust Craft has some exceptionally pretty ones this year.

A gay plaid skirt topped off with a dark shortie coat makes a very attractive outfit. Eves' Ladies Wear has all wool authentic tartan skirts pleated at the back, wrap-over front with huge pin, which are exceptionally well made and good-looking. Tartans we noticed were Ramsay, Anderson and Dress McDuff.

Attractive and serviceable pyjamas for the young man seen in a shop in Newmarket are knitted cotton jersey, striped, short sleeved top and plain bottoms. The tops may also be worn with overalls for playtime. Colors are fresh-looking—coral, blue and green all with white stripes. For girls 8 to 12, flowered crinkle crepe pyjamas are shown in pretty pinks and blues.

Wedding months are here again. A special gift that the lucky couple will treasure for all time is a sterling silver carving set to match their sterling flatware. We saw the Prelude pattern but there are others and may be purchased in Newmarket at Yates.

For late spring and summer it's the transparent look. We saw some dainty dotted Swiss material in a Newmarket shop, suitable for cool afternoon dresses, or blouses and fluffy evening dresses. It is in pale pink, blue and yellow with tiny white dots or white with red dots. Also noticed some fine white dimity with tiny pink and yellow rosebuds that would make up into dainty children's clothes or nightgowns for yourself.

A tip from Betty: Recently read of a restorer for suede and though we'd pass along the word. Remove all the dirt you can from the object to be cleaned. Use a brush, then a soft cloth. Next hold the shoes, bag or gloves, directly in the steam from a boiling tea kettle for a few minutes. Remove and brush. A very professional looking result.

WOMEN'S AID GIVES $100 TO YORK HOSPITAL

A meeting of the Women's Aid of York County hospital was held at the agricultural board rooms on Tuesday afternoon, May 5, with Mrs. Rusty Rogers in the chair.

Ten of the Women's Institutes from neighboring communities sent representatives to the meeting. Mrs. W. A. McCaffrey, membership convener, reported that to date there were 113 paid-up members in the aid.

A report on the highly successful tea and bake sale which the members of the aid held on April 21 was presented by Mrs. Arleigh Armstrong. A donation of $100 was made to the hospital by the aid from monies on hand for the superintendent to use for the purchase of sheeting, etc.

Mrs. Wm. Bosworth gave a report on the activities of her nursery committee. To date 21 nighties have been completed and are now in use at the nursery. An additional 30 are being made.

A donation of material has been received from Tom Burke. From this, slip covers for six chairs in the maternity wing of the hospital are being made.

The last meeting of the season will be held on June 6 as the aid will not meet during July and August.

IT'S A Woman's World

By CAROLINE ION

Helping the blind to help themselves . . . that is the guiding idea behind the work of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind which is appealing for our financial assistance. Independence and freedom are precious to us all and the loss of sight to a man or woman increases rather than diminishes these strong desires for self-sufficiency.

This universal search for freedom and the right of private decision has been demonstrated to us clearly by the stories in our local paper concerning our New Canadians. In their desire to have these opportunities of independence for themselves and their children they have come of their own accord to a strange country. They deserve and are receiving a hearty welcome and encouragement.

Deserves Support
Likewise, such an organization as the C.N.I.B. which works so endlessly to compensate the blind person for his loss of sight by teaching him other skills, deserves and is receiving our support. There are some who can give of their time and talents to help and teach the blind, but for many of us, our contributions to this work must be made financially.

Homemakers are taught to run their homes and care for their children despite their handicap; the field of literature is reopened to the blind through the teaching of Braille; the individual needs are considered and every effort is made to help the sightless lead a happy, useful life.

Most of us are personally acquainted with someone who has received such benefits from the C.N.I.B. To a father, it has meant that he has been able to retain his position as the bread winner of the family, and what is more important, he has his self respect and confidence. As well as assisting the blind, the Canadian National Institute for the Blind works for the prevention of blindness by sponsoring free eye examinations, transportation and glasses.

Residents in Newmarket and district may send their contribution to A. C. Lord, Bank of Toronto, or to the chairman of the local committee, Mrs. J. E. Morris, 93 Prospect St. There will be a tag day on Saturday, May 6.

Salute Newmarket Mother

Mrs. Dorothy Bowman was saluted in the May issue of Liberty magazine for her work with cerebral palsy children. We in Newmarket are well acquainted with Mrs. Bowman's story and justly proud of her efforts in this field.

It is very satisfying to see public recognition on a national scale being given to a Newmarket mother.

Sweet Words

The theory expounded by child psychologists that we praise our children more and find fault with them less could be carried over well into our adult dealings. Why are we so reluctant to pat another on the back? What's your beef? No one needs a second invitation to air theirs, especially against someone in public life, the press or radio.

A pleasant exception occurred with reference to The Era and Express last week and Dr. A. L. Chute reported on the recent diabetic survey at an open meeting. Dr. Chute said that no small part of the success of the survey was due to the co-operation of the editor and staff of the local paper to this project. He complimented its reporters on their accuracy and attention to detail, none of which had been misconstrued or misinterpreted as had been the case with accounts carried by the large dailies in Toronto.

Of course, the aim of all newspapers is to present accurate and reliable coverage of current events. That is what The Era and Express attempts to do week in and week out so that one might say that such coverage of the diabetic survey was just what should be expected of a newspaper. Nevertheless, Dr. Chute is a mighty popular man around these parts and his words of praise still sound sweet in ones ears.

BARBARA CASE WEDS EUGENE L. ROSE

Trinity Anglican church, Aurora, was the setting Saturday for the marriage of Barbara Ann Case, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lancelot E. Case, to Eugene Lawrence Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rose. Rev. K. D. Whammough performed the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a nylon marquisette gown trimmed with inserts of white lace. Her long bridal veil hung from a dainty cloche fashioned of white satin and lace. She carried a white prayer book from which fell white satin streamers caught with pink rose buds and swainsons. Her attendants were all gowned in nylon marquisette made in bouffant style. Flowers to match their gowns were worn in halos and they carried colonial bouquets of snapdragons and pink roses.

Mrs. C. J. Chapman, matron of honor, and the two flower girls, Heather Chapman and Rosalie Rose, wore hyacinth blue. The bridesmaids, Miss Joan Case, Miss Lucille Case and Miss Myrtle McGee, were all gowned alike in daffodil yellow.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Lancelot Case received the guests at a reception held at the Gray Stones gowned in navy blue faille with white accessories. Her flowers were white, roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother who also wore navy with pink accents and a corsage of pink roses.

For travelling the bride chose a golden gabardine suit complemented by brown hat and accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose will reside in Aurora.

MOTHER, DAUGHTERS MARK BIRTHDAYS

Mrs. Ross Klineck and her three daughters, Mrs. Nelson Boynton and Mrs. Lorne Baker who are twins, and Mrs. Murray Baker celebrated their birthdays with a group party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Baker, Newmarket, on Wednesday, April 26.

Present for the occasion, which has become an annual celebration in the family, were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Klineck, Victoria Square, Shirley, Mrs. Murray Baker and daughter, Beverley, and the hostess, Mrs. Lorne Baker. An enjoyable time was spent with delicious refreshments being served.

LADY GOLFERS

A meeting of the ladies' section of the Highland Golf Club will be held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Landen, 9 Fleury St., Aurora, on Tuesday, May 8, at 8 p.m. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Murray A. Stewart, Toronto, convener of the team fund committee of the Ontario branch of the C.L.G.U.

All the ladies in Newmarket, Aurora and district who are interested in golf are invited to attend this meeting.

HASH

BY GEORGE HASKETT
Newmarket Sports Editor

Attention! Meeting to order. Case for consideration is a floor for the arena. Facts and figures presented to town fathers last week by "Citizen" Dewey Kuhns and Fred "Ways and Means" Thompson show floor cost would be just under eight grand. The floor is necessary to complete the arena as a community centre.

Don't have to skip back beyond last Halloween to prove the need. Recreation commission had no place large enough for this event, and finally used town hall. You know the answer. It was so crowded you couldn't move.

Off hand, we would say that the arena with proper floor could be used for 15 sports. Don't think we can get you 15 eh? Well, how's this for a try: indoor soccer, lacrosse, floor hockey, boxing, wrestling, roller skating, kids' softball, table tennis, badminton, basketball, tennis, marble tournaments, miniature golf course, indoor horse shoes, roller hockey, volleyball—over the top with one to spare.

Still on the sporting theme: Albert Higginson and his Rod and Gunners could have casting demonstrations, or how to hook 'em without water, even spread a sportsmen's show. In the way of demonstrations there are the horticultural show, halloween and floor shows. Then there's always dancing.

Don't think for a minute they are all revenue producers. Possibly roller skating, wrestling, boxing and dancing might come under that category. Give 'em all a chance, though, if we're carrying out the community centre idea. Collingwood is finding that wrestling is its big summer revenue producer. So let's get along with the job.

Department of records: Bill Mitchell and the Hawks are busting attendance records. Only way you could get in after 7:30 last couple of games at Tom Dickson's ice igloo was in somebody's pocket. Last hockey hold-out, the Hawks went out Saturday after a gallant try for the series. Lost 8-2 on the Georgian Bay shores. Hook cooked the Hawks. Collingwood net-minder had equal number of shots to block, 31, but said no on all but two. Hawk penalties hurt. Pent up fever of the series came more to the surface Saturday. Players squared off time after time—no real damage.

Can't get rid of these hockey guys. Harold "The Indian Chief" Rogers, Trolley League's top brass at the O.H.A. convention, reports large attendance. Metropolitan area plan went through. In a nutshell, all teams south of Richmond Hill including Markham and Stouffville go senior B. O.H.A. has in mind forming senior B groupings inside that area. Waiver rule stays put.

Fun comes with sunshine: Sunshine is all that is needed to blow the softball and baseball lid off. Lake Simcoe softball circuit again beat the local clubs at organizing. Ross "They talked me into it" Chapman, the turnip king of East Gwill, heads the slate again. League delegates say he is the man for the job, does do a faithful chore. Archie Dike returned for the umpteenth time as treasurer. Horace Pearson retired as secretary—after being "it" since the league started away back in 1933. Did great work, that Mr. Pearson, over the years. Harry Brammer, the squire of Pine Orchard, takes the reins.

Got us a couple of good right hand men out yonder in Doug Hope in the south and Claude Pollock in the north as league publicity directors. Let's get it going early and keep it coming, men.

Mighty good of you fellows to consider "the Hash man" for the secretary's post. Hated to say "no". Would have been fun to get in closer on the summer swings. Only way could do it was to split up in a gang. Ouch, Doc, don't use that saw.

Early season peek-a-boo: somebody let it slip. Queensville is going to sock the bejabbers out of all opposition. From last year to first this is the theme song up that way with Doug Beckett and Lorne Smith. Remind me in September—if I'm wrong.

Soundings, maybe blastings. Local mushball and addicts of the big diamond sport start circulating and percolating this week. Huge breeze fanning "to do" Tuesday. Maybe get some of the answers to ball problems, new diamond and floodlights. Certainly one problem that needs a solution is how to put all these young whipper snappers—you see them by the dozens toting a finger-mitt or a trapper around—into action. Even I could look good at first base with some of those combination scoop-shovel-trapper mitts now on display.

Newmarket Rod and Gun club—the name is possibly a misnomer, main object is conservation—is seeking to increase its membership. Members and visitors enjoyed trip to Maple fish hatcheries recently, town hall was filled to capacity Friday for films and the club shortly expects to make a trip to Midhurst forestry station. Sounds interesting. Phone Albert Higginson, Vic Higginson or Andy Carrick for particulars.

FULL HOUSE SEES ROD-GUN CLUB FILMS

The Newmarket Rod and Gun Club show at the town hall Friday was greeted with a full house. "Beyond our fondest expectations and everybody seemed pleased with the show" was the way Club President Albert Higginson described the response.

Four films carrying the addicts and their guests into the great outdoors were the main features. First of these, "Timagami Ranger," showed this beautiful district and had as the main theme "to be a good woodsman." The second film, "Fish Tales," gave the arm-chair fisherman a chance to join in on the other fellow's luck. Next was an "Outdoor Magazine Picture," another strike for the fishing enthusiasts, and last "Rainbow Parade," a carnera visit with birds, ducks and wild-fowl.

Albert Higginson, president of the club, a club incidentally more interested in conservation than anything else, said they were out after increased membership. Club holds twice monthly meetings, first and third Tuesday in each month in the Veterans' Dugout.

Mr. Hudson of the research department of the department of lands and forests, and Inspector Ellis, Simcoe district game warden, were the guests and in charge of the films. Newmarket Citizen's Band provided the music. First steps towards a sportsmen's show, which the club hopes to hold before the year is out, could be seen in the displays at either corner of the hall by Bert Morrison and Newmarket Sports and Cycle Shop.

At the conclusion of the evening the election of officers of the club for the coming year was held. Albert V. Higginson was returned as president, Ray Smith was named vice-president, Vic Higginson, financial secretary, Art Ainsley, recording secretary. Joe Brammar heads the committee in charge of catering and entertainment. Andy Carrick was elected as sports manager.

TENNIS CLUB 'READY AYE' FOR SPRING

Just give us some spring weather and we'll have the courts in shape is the report from the over-the-webbing enthusiasts of the Newmarket Tennis club. The courts have come through the winter in fine shape, just need a rolling job and little sprucing up and they'll be ready for play.

The club will welcome new members and is looking forward to a big year. Officers elected last fall for the coming season are Dr. John Dales, pres., Joyce Bothwell and Jerry Hugo, vice-pres., Mrs. Mary Dales, sec., and Mrs. Margaret Davis, treas. Bob Yates and Keith Davis are hon. presidents.

The Newmarket club will again enter the York-Simcoe Tennis League. The latter organization expects to meet in the near future. If interested in a membership in the Newmarket club a call to any of the executive will get you the desired information.

BEST GUYS IN WORLD

Haskett sings their praises

By GEORGE HASKETT

In this sportscribbling racket, you meet up with the best guys in the world. During this off season, we propose to bring you a few facts on these guys, the guys who keep the sport wheels churning in the canaltown.

Of course you all know them, but perhaps we often overlook the time and effort they put forward to keep sport moving. One unassuming chap, who more than anyone else to my mind has done great things to help minor sport along, is J. B. Walker. Perhaps you'll more readily recognize him if we say "Jim". Must have been some 15 seasons ago when Jim arrived in the hub from our sister town of Aurora. Over those 15 years, if a fellow had a dollar for every hour, every mile his car has sped down the highway taking teams here and there—well, sir, you could just sit back and take life easy.

Jim, during those years, summer and winter, held about every position in sport in town, from manager, coach, secretary-treasurer, convenor, well, in fact you name it and he has been it. Baseball, softball, hockey teams from the smallest to the largest have benefitted from his working genius.

Add to this fact that he has been chairman of almost every sport committee in town at one time and another, recreation, Lions sports, way and means, to name a few and we could go on and on. Now he serves on the arena commission and was a great worker for artificial ice as spokesman of the committee that appeared before town council. Off shoot was the offer to raise dollar for dollar with the town and that got the ball rolling.

Jim, we know, is the last guy who would want us to talk about the work that he carries without a thought of pay or thanks but just so he'll know it is appreciated by our young gaffers and oldsters, too, we'll put it in three words, "Thank you, Jimmie".

Over the next week or two, we will try to catch up with some of our sports workers if they don't start dodging us.

TROLLEY LOOP ALL-STARS

To keep a host of hockey fans and players alike from going off the deep-end next week, we will definitely bring an end to all speculation as to the composition of the Trolley League all-star, first and second teams. Ballotting on these important questions has now been completed. Eligible to vote on the question were the coaches and managers of the four teams and newspapermen Vic Sheppard of Sutton, Ab Hulse of Aurora, S. S. McKenzie of Bradford and Geo. Haskett of Newmarket. Announcement of the winning teams will come from league headquarters while Ab. "Down the Centre" Hulse will summarize the selection committee's findings.

whistle and we'll be along to your first meeting of the league." Charlie reports Woodbridge will have its new arena completed and ready for use this fall with the installation of artificial ice this summer. Could be just the team needed to enlarge the league membership.

Delivers milk in Refrigerator truck

Milk delivered in a refrigerator truck is the latest innovation in Newmarket. Operated by Don Cameron, the refrigerator truck keeps the milk at the same even temperature from the time it is pasteurized at the dairy until it is delivered at the customer's door. Customers at the end of the route get milk just as cold as those at the beginning, says Mr. Cameron. Another advantage, he points out, is that milk is delivered during daylight hours and customers can put out their bottles after they get up and bring them in as soon as the driver makes his round so that the milk is not exposed to the weather.

LEGION BINGO

On Saturday evening in the Aurora Legion hall, branch 385, held another bingo. A fair crowd was in attendance. PARK FLOODLIGHTS (Continued from Page 1) of artificial ice. While no exact figure was available as to the amount of ice time used by the public and separate school pupils for skating and hockey, possibly it ran to eight hours a week. Add to this countless hours of practice, and Optimist bantam league games, you could write the first year of operation as an artificial ice arena as a grand success as a recreation centre.

Newmarket bantam and pee-wee hockey teams last week had their banquet and presentation night at the Scout hall. Dinner was prepared by mothers of the players. One hundred and fifty sat down to supper.

Presentation of crests was made to the winning and runner-up teams in squirt, pee-wee and bantam divisions. Captains Eddie Thornton and Dave Winkler received the crests from chairman Frank Hollingsworth for the squirt teams. Chief referee Grant Blight called on each member of the winning and runner-up team in the pee-wee sector to come forward for their crest. H. A. Jackson gave each member of the pee-wee championship club and runner-up team a certificate, a present from the committee in charge of Tom Kirk night.

Mr. Jackson congratulated Mr. Jefferson, coach of the winning pee-wee team, then spoke briefly thanking Grant Blight for his refereeing each Saturday morning, members of the Optimists club who coached the teams, Newmarket public school staff for their work, the management and staff of the Newmarket arena for their co-operation, Jack Hamilton for his assistance, Gordon Stephenson for his weekly time-keeping and Bill McComb for his help since returning to town.

McComb presented each member of the Optimists League champions and the runner-up team with a crest. Bill gave the lads encouragement to continue their hockey efforts and said not to hesitate at any time to call on him if he could help. Russell Broadbent presented his trophy to Bob Broadbent and Jack Hamilton, captain and coach respectively, of the winning bantam team.

Cliff Gunn, who refereed the O.M.H.A. bantam play-down games, presented the Newmarket Sports and Cycle Trophy to Bob Forhan for topping the scorers in the Optimists bantam league with an average of four goals a game.

Guests at the head table were Bill McComb, Bill Geer, Alf Elphinstone, Bob Birrell, Morley Hunter, Grant Blight, Cliff Gunn, Harold Eaton, Russell Broadbent. Other guests were Gordon Stephenson, Doug Campbell, Samuel Jefferson, H. A. Jackson, Pat McLean, Jack Hamilton, Geo. Haskett. Frank Hollingsworth acted as chairman and master of ceremonies.

All who had a part in making the minor and school league hockey a success over the past winter are to be congratulated on their efforts.

Archery club members Bring home trophies

Newmarket has an ambitious and expanding archery club. While, as Club Director Orla Larsen was quick to point out, the club is only in its infancy new members are coming along week to week. "We're glad to see them and hope more and more will come along," he says.

The club has a membership of 15 and holds its contests and instructional periods on the rifle range at the drill shed at the old military camp. The club hopes to set up an outdoor course either at Glenville or along the canal as soon as spring truly arrives.

Free instruction by Mr. and Mrs. Markham is available to the members. As the club hasn't an official name, suggestions are coming in to give it a moniker to equal the enthusiasm of its members. Seven members of the Newmarket club attended the Lake Shore Archery shoot last weekend and fared very well. Jan Meadus brought home the men's open handicap prize and Mrs. Pat Markham, the ladies' open handicap award. Over 75 marksmen from four clubs were entered in this shoot.

RUSHED TO HOSPITAL

Bill McGhee, captain of Aurora junior Black Hawks, was rushed to Toronto on Sunday to undergo an appendix operation. His condition is reported favorable.

Bay town cops cup Tie, 8-2 triumph Wind up series

By holding Black Hawks to a 2-2 tie at Aurora last Thursday night and then winning 8-2 at home on Saturday night, Collingwood Greenshirts became the O.H.A. junior C champions for 1950. It was the first junior championship ever won by the Georgian Bay metropolis and it was the seventh O.H.A. crown to rest in Collingwood over the years.

The series took six games, Collingwood having a 3-1 margin, and one tie. It was Collingwood 25, Aurora 21 in goals. There are no alibis from the Aurora players or management and Collingwood, which outlasted, out-lucked and outshot the Hawks, is real champion.

It lost its ace forward, Jim "Chubby" Barrett, with a broken toe in the fifth game, but came on without him by shifting its lines. Barrett is tied in goals with top scorer of the series, centre man Allan Morrill. The Greenshirts appeared throughout to have something in reserve and the Hawks at the end of the series were mighty tired. It was no disgrace to lose to the Greenshirts and all North York is still proud of the Aurora kids.

In the final analysis, the Mitchelmen didn't play back to their form of the Lindsay series, and the straw that broke the camel's back was those first three losses by one goal which gave Collingwood the jump and confidence they needed. Probably the real break of the series was that 6-5 win scored by Collingwood in Aurora in the second game when it came from behind a three-goal deficit.

The loss of pivot-player Bun Sellars was a distinct blow to the Aurora cause as for most of the series Aurora was outmanned down the centre. Team captain Bill McGhee played the last three games under wraps, being taken to Toronto for an appendicitis operation on Sunday last, while winger Bill Attridge played the series against the advice of his doctor.

At Aurora it was Morrill, Dance and Barney Walmsley that sparked the Collingwood drive. A Collingwood Morrill and Dance again ran roughshod with the Aurora club, the former getting four goals, two unassisted, and Dance getting two goals and three assists. At Collingwood too, Paul Maguire, the agile Aurora netminder who has been one of the stars of the series, was below par.

En route to the finals, Collingwood ousted Penetang, Sarnia and Simcoe. Aurora, who had beaten Brampton, Fanny, Sarnia, Lindsay, Wallaceburg, probably the most junior C final series ever drew bigger crowds, a total of over 11,000 cash customers seeing the series in both Aurora and Collingwood.

The series orchid awards would go to Frank Dance, Allan Morrill, Bruce Hook and Len Cook in that order for Collingwood and for Aurora, Don Gibson, Laurie Thoms and Paul Maguire.

Aurora 2, Collingwood 2

In a brilliant first period which saw the Hawks give their best only to fail around the nets and end with a goal lead from the stick of Grant Firth, the fans saw perhaps the most spectacular period of the series. Collingwood withstood a penalty with ease, while Don Gibson, with two men short, put on a display that will be long remembered.

Grant Green added to the Aurora lead with a goal at 4:32 for Aurora with Marchant getting the assist. It looked like a nice lead. Allan Morrill with Jack Atkinson off scored from the blue line on a screen shot on which Maguire had no chance. Collingwood ousted Aurora three to one.

Barney Walmsley tied the count at 10:10 in the third with Dance setting-up the play and Aurora was lucky to hold the game in tow. The Hawks made a great bid to get the tie-breaker but Hook was too good.

In the overtime Collingwood was content to play for a tie with the Hawks having the edge in them but luck running out on them. It was a heartbreaker for the Aurora kids. Collingwood treated it as a win.

Collingwood 8, Aurora 2

For half the game, the Hawks were in the hunt, then the balloon went up and Collingwood Greenshirts sailed away the junior C title to the delight of its home supporters. It was 2-1 at the end of the first, Morrill and Cook scoring for Collingwood and Laurie Thoms scoring for Aurora.

Dance added to the Collingwood total and then Thoms came back to make it 3-2 and the fans settled back for anything to happen. It did, Morrill sifted a softie past Maguire to make it 4-2. With an odd-man advantage, the same player made it 5-2.

The last period was all Collingwood with goals going to Dance, Cook and Morrill. The Hawks just couldn't click and the Greenshirts were skating away from them as the period lengthened.

As the final bell rang, players of both teams forgot their "feelin' and tussin" to pat each other on the back. The Collingwood fans carried most of their team off the ice.

Series over - Hawks tried hard

The ice moved out of Aurora arena this week, the latest O.H.A. hockey has ever been played within the confines of North York, but Ken Brown and the lads at North York are still catering to T.H.L. hockey. Actually, Aurora Tigers in 1940 were playing hockey in mid-May in the junior "B" series.

Aurora Blackhawks hung up their sweaters this week after being on skates since last November. They lost to a better conditioned, and mentally geared Collingwood team who outfought the Hawks most of the way and making their own breaks, receiving the smiles of Lady Luck as well. The Hawks needn't hang their heads. They have a proud record over the season of 20 wins, six losses and one tie in regular O.H.A. fixtures. No alibis are needed. The best team won, and you'll have to go a long way before you can find better junior players than Len Cook, Frank Dance, Barney Walmsley, Al Morrill, "Chubby" Barrett, Bruce Hook and all the rest.

Collingwood was strong in every spot, although it is interesting to note that their third line of Bob Meek, Bob Fryer and Bob Fawcett didn't get a single scoring point, and only one assist went to their blue line forces. On the other hand, nine Aurora players, including all three lines, got points, while Aurora defence-men picked up four.

Jack Portland can take a bow for a job well done. He scouted the Aurora team, saw the weaknesses, and pointed his team towards them from the start. He quickly changed styles as needed and in the final games, shifted his forwards around with abandon to continually love one fresh man at least on the ice who could travel like a flash outside of his own blue line.

As an indication of counter-intelligence, take the position play of the Hawks when short-handed. It has been a pleasure to watch McGhee-Atkinson-Firth and Gibson operate under Mitchell's coaching (the others hardly played it as well), on short-handed operations. Having been stopped by the blueliners moving up on the puck-carrier and the wings cutting in from behind for the puck on reverse cuts. Portland solved it fairly well as he instructed one of his forwards to play inside the Aurora defence, giving that one a clear breakaway or threatening sufficiently to prevent the wing from breaking out with the puck. As a matter of record Collingwood scored eight goals with Aurora short-handed. The best the Hawks could do under similar circumstances was four.

Entirely homebrew except for goalie Bruce Hook, who was imported from Penetang the Collingwood team will be in junior company for some time yet if the pros do not lure them away. Barney Walmsley is headed for Waterloo in "A", and along with Len Cook is the property of St. Louis Flyers. Al Walmsley is on the Maple Leafs list and presumably bound for Marlboros juniors. Frankie Dance, brilliant young right winger, at last reports, was being sought by both the Leafs and Chicago Black Hawks. Allan Morrill is supposed to be Bruins or Black Hawks property. There are plenty of good replacements available despite losses, we understand, but history shows that no junior "C" team has ever won it twice in a row.

The hand of time falls upon seven of the Black Hawks. Last-year performances have been given in junior company by Ron Simmons, Bill Attridge, Toar Hill, Bun Sellars, Moe Petch, Keith Wardell, Bill McGhee. The whole lot gave their best performance over the year in '50 and ended teen-age hockey with a burst of glory. Unfortunately, the mounted ranks aren't interested in 19-year-old hockey. There's some good intermediate talent available for next season from that list.

OTTAWA LETTER

by

Jack Smith, M.P.
North York

Last week the usual decorum of the House of Commons was disturbed by the presence of some half dozen communists who attempted to speak to the members from the public gallery. Visitors in the gallery of the House of Commons must always observe strict silence and are not allowed to applaud or in any way show approval or disapproval of the proceedings.

You can imagine the surprise of all last Thursday when just before the speaker's call to order, a loud voice broke out in the gallery. As one disturber was being taken to another took up the line and so on until a half dozen were removed. The disturbers were members of the communist organization which held a meeting in Ottawa which day.

Such incidents are very rare in the history of the Canadian Parliament. Members of the protective staff recall that it was 28 years ago a disturber had to be removed from the gallery by force. The late R. B. Bennett was in the midst of one of his heated orations when loud cries of "Repent," "Repent!" were heard in the gallery. The offender was known as a character about town who shortly afterwards was taken to a mental hospital.

Contest Winner from North York

We had the pleasure and honor of this week of entertaining in Ottawa Allen Jackson of Newmarket. Allen, age 16, was the first prize-winner in an essay contest sponsored by the Canadian Legion open to all secondary school students in Ontario. The essay subject was "My Idea of Canadian Citizenship" and there were more than 3,000 contestants. The prizes to four winners was a two-day, all-expense trip to the capital city.

We entertained Allen to lunch in the parliamentary restaurant and showed him around the Parliament Buildings. We had a visit with the Prime Minister who gave a short but impressive talk on citizenship to the young people. Other prize-winners who accompanied Allen on the Ottawa trip were: Anne Cobra of Comiston, Barbara Boos of Kitchener and David Proux of Midland.

Rural Mailmen

Among the public servants of rural Canada none is more faithful or more highly regarded than the rural mailman. Day after day, in all kinds of weather, he renders an important and appreciated service to the people. Many of these men who deliver the mail have long records of public service.

In North York, the long service record is held by Edmund Groves who commenced service on Schomberg R. R. 2, on April 1, 1929.

Frank G. Gambrill commenced service to boxholders in King, R. R. 3, on December 1, 1920, and Ernest Cummins, King, R. R. 2, has been delivering the mail since July 14, 1924.

On May 18 next, "Billy" King will have completed a quarter century of service as the contractor for Keswick, R. R. 1. To all these and other mailmen, our congratulations and good wishes.

I receive many enquiries regarding Mr. MacKenzie King's health and am pleased to report that he is progressing favorably. He has been confined to his Laurier Ave. home since before Christmas but with the coming of nice weather he is looking

An Aurora Opinion

By

DOROTHY BARKER

Aurora Editor

Memorials to our fallen heroes of the war which came to a shooting end in 1946 have become more realistic than the cenotaphs erected to commemorate those who gave their lives in the 1914-18 world tragedy. The idea of dedicating funds raised in grateful memory for the purpose of providing new hospitals, artificial ice rinks and community centres is progressive. But we still have pyramidal piles of stone in almost every community, recording the names of casualties.

Once a year on November 11, soldiers, cadets and citizens stand in shivering rows around the cenotaph while the mayor or the mother of one of the boys whose name is listed on the copper plate, places a wreath at the base of the memorial. That seems to be the only useful purpose these cairns serve, a prop for a wreath.

Aurora's monument with its light visible for miles as darkness falls, is perhaps one of the handsomest and most original built after the first great war. It could make a lasting impression on tourists entering our town if it were properly landscaped. Much could be accomplished other than just planting a few trees.

At present it stands in the centre of a field, surrounded on three sides by small trees struggling to reach its majestic height. It will be years before the trees are sufficiently grown to greatly enhance the memorial's dignity.

Town Crowded

With the increase in population since the war, there are more apartment dwellers and persons occupying one room, than at any other period in Aurora's history. It is no longer a small town where every citizen occupies a house with a garden to enjoy. We have Victoria Park suitable for horse shows, carnivals, play grounds and parades, but it is hardly the spot to spend a pleasant Sunday afternoon.

We would like to suggest to the proposed parks committee that

YORK COUNTY

In Review 1615 - 1949

This is another of a series of articles on the history of York County, edited by Hugh Griggs, Mimico, from information compiled during the past four years by W. G. Goddard, staff member of Weston Collegiate Institute and Vocational School. York County celebrates its centenary this year.

In 1791, Augustus Jones surveyed the Township of Scarboro, then called Glasgow, and the Constitutional or Canada Act dividing Canada into Upper and Lower Canada was passed by the British parliament.

Lt.-Col. John Graves Simcoe was appointed lieutenant-governor of the Province of Upper Canada.

On September 15, Augustus Jones completed the survey of the township of York, which was at that time named Dublin, and Simcoe changed the names of the Townships of Glasgow and Dublin to Scarborough and York, respectively.

In 1791, we hear about the Queen's York Rangers again.

After Yorktown, the sick, among whom was Lt.-Col. Simcoe, were paroled and allowed to return to New York. Simcoe returned to England and was soon elected a member of parliament. When the act was passed dealing with the formation of Canada into two provinces, he was appointed the first governor of Upper Canada. He at once asked that troops be allotted to his province and eventually was instructed to reorganize his beloved Queen's Rangers, as of December 20, 1791. The regiment assembled at Chatham, England, and arrived at Quebec in May, 1792, where old members rejoined and a number of Canadians were enlisted.

Takes Oath of Office
On July 8, 1792, Lt.-Gov. John Graves Simcoe took the oath of office at Kingston, Ont., in the presence of members of his executive council, and on July 16, issued the proclamation dividing Upper Canada into 19 counties, of which York was the 14th.

Simcoe's executive council consisted of William Osgoode, William Robertson, James Baby, Alexander Grant and Peter Russell.

September 17 saw the first parliament and Upper Canada convened, and on October 13, the first session of the first parliament was prorogued.

The Township of Etobicoke was organized in 1792. The name is taken from the Indian Wah-do-be-kaung and means "the place where alders grow". It has an area of 27,976 acres. Mimico, New Toronto, Islington and Long Branch have been incorporated municipalities since that time.

The Rt. Rev. William Markham, archbishop of York, England, gave his name to the Township of Markham, organized in the year 1792. It was first setup by William Berczy and his followers, the area being 67,696 acres.

The clay banks along the waterfront so resembled the Scarborough cliffs in England that Mrs. John Graves Simcoe gave the township that name. Its area is 40,785 acres. David Thomson was the first settler. He was a stonemason by trade and worked on the construction of the first parliament buildings in the town of York.

Settled by Quakers
The Township of Vaughan was opened for settlement and named after Benjamin Vaughan, one of the British commissioners, who signed the Treaty of Versailles in 1783 with the United States of America. Its area is 67,007 acres. Quakers from Pennsylvania were among the first to settle here.

The first map and record of the town of York was made by command of Lt.-Gov. Simcoe, by the surveyor, Alexander Aitken. This map was discovered in 1900 in a vault in London, England, by John Ross Robertson, where it had lain for 100 years. It now forms part of the Robertson collection.

John Countryman built a sawmill on the west bank of the Humber River near the present site of Weston.

William Osgoode, executive councillor and speaker (September, 1792) of the legislative council, was appointed the first chief justice of Upper Canada. Osgoode Hall bears his name.

John Scadding, father of Rev. Henry Scadding, D.D., Toronto, settled at York in 1792 on his arrival from England where he had been manager of the Simcoe estate at Walford, Devon. He received a grant of 250 acres of land on the west bank of the Don River.

Article five will deal with a number of "firsts" in the county's development.

THE HOMEMAKERS

Desserts for children

Canada's food rules emphasize the fact that children up to 12 years should drink at least a pint of milk a day. Adolescents require even more; their quota being one and one-half pints, while adults should have at least one-half pint. Many homemakers interpret this rule to mean milk served as a beverage, but a goodly portion may be used in cooking.

Eggs, too, play an important part in the diet, not only because of their nutritive value but because of their palatability and versatility in cooking.

The following desserts have the children in mind, but the adults will enjoy them as well.

SNOW CAP

2 egg whites
1/4 tsp. salt
4 tsp. sugar

2 tsp. sugar
2 tsp. cornstarch
pinch of salt
2 cups milk
2 egg yolks
6 canned peach halves

Add salt to egg whites and beat until stiff. Gradually beat in the sugar. Pour boiling water, 3 to 4 inches deep, into a large, deep pan or bowl. Drop meringue by spoonfuls into the water, making 6 meringues. Cover and let stand 20 minutes.

Mix sugar, cornstarch and salt, add milk gradually and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Place over hot water and cook about ten minutes. Add a little of the milk mixture to beaten egg yolks, then add to remaining mixture and cook, stirring constantly, for 3 minutes. Pour into individual serving dishes. Cover with sliced peaches and top with cooked meringues. Chill before serving. Yield: six servings.

CHILDREN'S DELIGHT

4 slices bread
4 tsp. peanut butter
3 tsp. butter
1/2 tsp. salt
3 cups milk
3 eggs
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup raisins

Spread slices of bread with a blend of the butters. Cut into cubes and place in a greased baking dish. Combine salt, milk, beaten eggs and brown sugar. Stir until sugar is dissolved. Add the raisins and pour milk mixture over bread crumbs. Set in a pan of water and oven-pinch in a moderate oven, 350 degrees, for 1 hour. Yield: six servings.

BARLEY PUDDING

1/2 cup uncooked barley
4 cups boiling water
1/4 tsp. salt
2 egg yolks
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 cups milk
1/4 tsp. vanilla
2 egg whites

Cook barley in the rapidly boiling salted water for 40 minutes or until tender and practically all the water has been absorbed. Mix beaten egg yolks, sugar and milk and add to the barley, blending well. Cook, stirring constantly, in a double boiler until mixture coats a spoon, about 8 to 10 minutes. Remove from heat, add vanilla and fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into serving dish and serve hot or cold. Yield: six servings.

YOUNG HOPEFULS BY DOROTHY MUIR BOWMAN

Peter's lies parents' problem

Peter, eight years old, is causing his parents much concern because he tells lies so convincingly and so unflinchingly.

At the age of six years, Peter discovered that he could avoid punishment by telling little fibs. After two years of practice in fibbing, he has graduated into the stage of lying. Even if he is caught in a lie, occasionally, and punished, Peter has come to believe that he can lie himself out of most predicaments.

Honesty doesn't come naturally to a child. It takes years of experience to teach that honesty is really the best policy. Even then, there is a tendency on the part of most people to try alibis to avoid unpleasant consequences.

The first recollection Peter's mother has regarding his telling an untruth was when he was five years old. She had given him a couple of cookies and told him that he had had enough until supper time. While she was answering the phone, Peter helped himself according to the tell-tale manner in which the cover had been replaced on the cookie jar. Other evidence was destroyed by the time mother returned to the kitchen and when Peter was questioned, he denied having touched the cookie jar.

Peter knew he would be punished if he admitted having taken another cookie—so when his mother asked, "Did you take another cookie after I told you not to?" he was frightened into saying "No."

When the evidence was so plain, mother shouldn't have asked Peter a question that would tempt him to lie. It would have been preferable if she had said, "You must have been very hungry to have another cookie even after I asked you not to eat another one." Mother might have mentioned that she hoped it wouldn't interfere with his appetite at supper time—because that was the reason she had limited his consumption of cookies. Whatever mother says or whatever she decides as a fair consequence for a little disobedience, she shouldn't give the child the opportunity to tell an untruth.

Honesty is a very valuable trait to acquire and training toward such a worthy goal should start at an early age. It is only fair to attach a measure of leniency to deserved punishment when the child is truthful concerning his misbehavior. Discipline is a way of helping a child develop and it is important to help him develop into an honest individual.

No matter what attributes a man possesses, he is never better than his word.

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis Colville
IN DIFFERENT WAYS

Many and varied are the forms of entertainment with which we are confronted in this age of the vivid, often verging on the lurid.

But, in Newmarket last week, we could choose between two completely different forms, the prototypes of which are lost in the distance, but which are as alive and full of appeal today as in the "long, long ago."

My father was a lover of minstrel shows, so, at an early age I was taken to the opera house in Smith's Falls, from whence I brought away a confused jumble of gay costumes, black faces, fun and laughter and also a memory which endears all minstrel shows to me. On the other hand, my mother adored choral music and so, every good company of singers that came to "my home town"—and being a junction, we got perforce, many who would otherwise have passed us by—I was taken to hear.

Assess the Value
Last week within the compass of five days, Newmarket gave a chance to its people to assess the value of these two forms of entertainment and many took advantage of both.

Such being the case, it's intriguing to speculate on just where the appeal lay in each case, and that while some enjoyed one and some the other, a good many hundreds enjoyed both. Three things they had in common: eye appeal, music and laughter.

In the Bell Singers we see a uniquely trained group, responding to an equally unique conductor, for certainly Dr. Bell is a law unto himself. The perfect smoothness of tone, apparently uninterrupted by the necessity for breathing, is little short of marvellous, and it's not until you glue your eyes—how do we do that?—to one particular section and watch some take breath while others carry on that one learns a little of the secret.

I say "a little" advisedly for, my husband and I, even granting this, could not fathom the perfection of timing which gave the lovely effect. We could have wished there had been a few more numbers like "Sweet and Low" and the Bach-Gounod, "Ave Maria". But that's a selfish kind of wish, and we enjoyed it all. Two things more, particularly—the Gilbert and Sullivan medley and the nursery rhymes, for I am an addict of both!

Marvellous Impersonator
One girl at the right end of the middle row was a marvellous impersonator as well as in the choruses, having a beautiful voice.

People say we Canadians lack initiative ability—well, in the Bell Singers, Canada has something purely Canadian and we can be proud of them.

Now turn to the minstrel show—as so many of you did—and here again we have eye appeal; a wonderful backdrop for one thing. One almost felt one could board the Lindy Lou and go down the Mississippi, show boat style. Then the gay costumes and lastly, the local atmosphere. Here were no strangers. Here were local men, not just gotten together hastily, but after long weeks of practice giving a performance where one had many things to choose from outside.

600 W.I. CONVENORS ATTEND GUELPH ANNUAL MEETING

Six hundred women from all parts of Ontario are meeting at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, today and Friday for the annual meeting of the Ontario Women's Institute convenors' conference.

Present are convenors of "Agriculture and Canadian Industries," "Citizenship and Education," and a host of other groups, and some important problems confronting women of the province are being discussed and dealt with.

President of the Federated Women's Institutes of Ontario is Mrs. J. R. Fitcher of St. Thomas. Miss Anna P. Lewis, director of the Women's Institute branch and home economics service of the Ontario department of agriculture, and Mrs. Hugh Summers, past president of Fonthill, are honorary presidents. Regional vice-presidents include Mrs. Arthur Hudson, Lym; Mrs. Arthur Hamilton, Alton; and Mrs. R. G. Purcell, Port William.

Speakers at the Guelph meetings include Dr. W. R. Reek, M.B.E., president of the college; C. D. Graham, Ontario deputy minister of agriculture; Dr. Margaret McCready, director of MacDonald Institute, Guelph; Dr. H. I. Patterson, director of farm economics, Ontario department of agriculture; Mrs. Raymond Sayre, Ackworth, Iowa, international president, Associated Countrywomen of the World; Miss Constance Hayward, liaison officer, Canadian citizenship branch, department of citizenship and immigration, Ottawa, and others.

JEAN CUPPLES

WED IN MT. ALBERT

Mount Albert United church, decorated with ferns, snapdragons and roses, was the scene of the marriage on April 15 of Marjorie Jean Cupples, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cupples, Holt, and Mr. Carl Emil Wienecke, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Wienecke, Denbigh. Rev. C. P. Shapter performed the ceremony. Miss Olive Meyers, Toronto, was soloist and Miss Olive Tinsdale, Mount Albert, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white jersey with finger-tip veil, white accessories and sweetheart roses. Mrs. Glenna Hunt, matron of honor, chose green faille taffeta with yellow carnations. Bridesmaids, Ann Anderson and Evelyn Wienecke, wore in orchid faille taffeta with pink carnations. Flowergirls, Margaret Hilliard and Carol Ann Walls, wore yellow taffeta with blue carnations. Ringbearer was Douglas Corbett. Mr. Gordon Roberts, Toronto, was best man and ushers were Messrs. Douglas and Murray Cupples.

The reception was held at the church parlors where the bride's mother received in navy crepe with a corsage of roses, assisted by the groom's mother in grey printed crepe with corsage of roses. For travelling to Ottawa and Denbigh the bride chose a navy crepe dress with grey coat.

and navy accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Wienecke will reside in Toronto.

Queensville pastor, Wife missionaries To upper Amazon

Rev. and Mrs. W. Large and baby son, Paul, will be leaving in the near future for their missionary field at Iquitos on the Amazon River.

While Rev. Large was serving with the air force overseas, he decided to enter the ministry. He and Mrs. Large attended London Bible Institute for three years and graduated in 1948. It was then, in May, 1948, that Mr. Large became pastor of the Maple Hill Baptist church. For the past two years he has served here faithfully and will be greatly missed. Mr. and Mrs. Large attended the Medical Health Institute at Lansing for one year. This is a missionary medical school.

Mr. Large taught religious instruction at Ravenshoe, Union St., Hillside and Queensville schools. By means of the flann-o-graph he taught this subject in a real and interesting way to the boys and girls. At the farewell party on Friday evening in Maple Hill school, Ravenshoe, Union St. and Hillside sections presented cheques in token of Mr. Large's services in their schools.

On Friday evening, the school house was full, showing the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Large are held. Many useful gifts were presented during the evening.

Rev. Large left on Monday for Williamsville, N.Y., to do deputization work there.

In South America it is estimated there are 17 missionaries to one million people. So the missionary's task is great. Mr. and Mrs. Large expect to go via Lima, Peru.

The anniversary services will be held at the Maple Hill Baptist church on Sunday, May 7. At the morning service at 11.30 a.m. D.S.T. Miss Mary Carol Knights will be the guest soloist. For the evening service at 7.30 p.m. D.S.T. the Kennedy Bros. quartet will provide special music. At 8.30 p.m. colored films will be shown on "A Trip Up the Amazon". Rev. Large will be speaking at these services and it will be his last service as pastor of this church. A special offering will be taken at both services and this will be given towards the travelling expenses of the Larges to South America.

Small House Plans . .

THE BARCLAY can be expanded into a future three bedroom house with the linen closet and rear bedroom closet forming the hall leading to a third rear bedroom. Coat closets are provided for the entrances, a linen cabinet in the hall, a walk-in closet in the rear bedroom and a wardrobe closet in the front bedroom.

Plumbing costs are reduced by placing the kitchen and bathroom side by side with the laundry tubs directly below. Other features include the large picture window, pergola effect entrance, free circulation between rooms, and large dining space in the kitchen. The chimney is located so a combination kitchen range can be connected. The refrigerator is near the door, work counter under the window and the stove and sink on the side wall.

Plans call for frame construction throughout, wide siding, asphalt shingles and concrete steps.

Dimensions are 34' x 24'. Cubage is 14,250 cubic feet.

World prices factor In setting floor Watson declares

If a floor price policy is to work satisfactorily, prices must bear a reasonable relationship to world prices unless the government implementing such a policy is prepared to control production and prohibit import practices that are obnoxious to believers in free enterprise, W. P. Watson, Ontario livestock commissioner, declared recently at Guelph.

"Floor prices are within the category of a moderate effort on the part of man to temper with the system of free enterprise," Mr. Watson said. "This law has played an important part in the building up of this country and in order to make the policy of floor prices effective it becomes necessary for the government to set up an agency with power to purchase any or all the product offered if and when it reaches the minimum price."

'No Easy Task'

"The government agency must then find a way of disposing of any product that it acquires. This is not an easy task unless the government is prepared to destroy the surplus. If it is offered in world markets, it must, according to Geneva agreements, be priced at not less than cost, otherwise the vendor will be accused of dumping and the product will be subject to countervailing duties which make the cost prohibitive to countries that might be customers. In the final analysis no country is likely to permit another country to dump products to the detriment of its own producers."

Speaking of the Ontario farmer, Mr. Watson said that most of the land in this province has been cultivated for more than a century. A greater part of the soil is in a lower state of fertility than it was at the beginning of the century. If economical production is to be maintained, soil fertility should be the first consideration of the farmer and particularly the young man who intends to make this vocation his life work.

Consumer Sets Price

"In the final analysis, barring artificial price supports, the consumer determines the price. As a consequence cost of production is of greater significance than market price in that the producer can exercise a greater degree of control over that factor. . . . The farmer must determine which factor has the greatest influence on production costs."

The speaker went into costs in various classes of livestock and then turning to grain he said that the western farmer can produce grain cheaper than the farmer in eastern Canada, but added costs must be figured before western grain reaches the east.

"These costs can be reduced if our eastern farmers have as their objective greater yields from their acres," he declared. "This is a feat that can be accomplished by adoption of a proper system of crop rotation, use of improved varieties and the judicious application of fertilizers. Greater yield per acre means more animal units per farm or what is equally important livestock that is better fed."

Zephyr News

Church Re-opens

By the number of cars parked along the streets of the village on Sunday, a passerby would certainly wonder what was going on. Well, it was the re-opening of the Zephyr United church after being closed for about nine months for renovations. There was, indeed, a record crowd at both services. Both church and Sunday-school room were full to overflowing. Friends from all the neighboring villages and towns came and joined in the services.

Rev. Davies of Stouffville conducted the morning service. His winning smile and wholesome good humor, and most of all, his splendid sermon held the individual interest of the large congregation. The evening service was conducted by Rev. Shapter of Mount Albert. His sermon was on the very wide subject, "Stewardship." His discourse was both timely and appropriate for the occasion and many were the lessons which we in our lifetime can put into practice in the great and needful work of the present day work of the church.

The music so ably sung by the Zephyr choir and assisted by the Orillia quartet added much to the success and enjoyment of our opening service. Kindly comments and admirations were expressed by our visitors. Hard work, given gratis, enjoys a little commendation and praise. Financially the people responded wonderfully, much to the delight of the financial board.

Much credit is due the pastor, Rev. Mr. Bamford, the building committee, official board and other workmen who gave such splendid leadership and engineering to the project to a successful end. The ladies of the congregation are indeed proud of the splendid up-to-date kitchen which was installed during the building operations.

Now that the one big job of beautifying and renovating of our church is over, let us continue our enthusiasm and support.

port of the spiritual life of the church, which after all, is the most important. Come and enjoy our church services. Parents come and help us in our Sunday-school work—don't just send "Johnny" and "Mary" and stay home yourselves.

Miss Reta Horner, Hamilton, spent the weekend at her home here.

Miss Beth Silversides, Guelph, was home for the weekend.

The W.A. of Zephyr United church held a very successful meeting last Thursday in the Sunday-school room. Mrs. L. Profit, the president, conducted the meeting. A parcel post sale was held at the close of the meeting. The proceeds amounted to $38. Come and join our W.A. We now have nearly 50 members.

The W.M.S. of Zephyr United church is sponsoring a lecture and travelogue by Edna Jaques on Wednesday, May 10, in the Sunday-school room of the church. An afternoon tea will be served. Come and enjoy a real literary treat and pleasant social time.

The Presbyterian church here will hold its services at 10.45 a.m. instead of the afternoon during the summer months.

The W.A. of Zephyr United church is sponsoring a play entitled "Grandpa's Sister," to be given on the evening of May 16, by the young people of Sallina church. Come and enjoy an evening's fun and pleasure.

We are glad to report Mr. Ben Kester is improving although still confined to his room.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Luckie and Dale have moved to their new home at Miami Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Parker and Peggy spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Galbraith.

Farm Federation News

At Vandorf hall, April 27, the farm people of Whitechurch township completed the organization of the township unit of the federation of agriculture. Kingsley Brown, the editor of the Rural Co-Operator, was guest speaker.

Mr. Brown spoke on parity farm prices and the benefits to farm people from federation organization. Mr. Loveless, president of the York county hog producers, read a letter from the secretary of Ontario hog producers saying that there was a possibility that the government might lift the embargo on U.S.A. pork products.

This would mean we would have to compete with cheap corn-fed hogs. The price of live hogs in the States is around $16 per 100 lbs. To our dressed weight hogs, corresponding price would be around $22 per 100 lbs. Mr. Loveless asked that the Whitechurch township federation take some action. A committee of three was appointed to wait on our federal member, Mr. Smith. A letter was sent to Mr. Gardiner, minister of agriculture, protesting that the floor prices set on farm produce were not the cost of production.

There were two questions asked from the floor: What was the pro rating charges on livestock? No one in the hall knew the answer. How much money each year was collected by one-half of one percent condemnation insurance on livestock. How much of his fund was used to pay for condemned stock? No one present had ever heard of a statement being given. The farmers pay those charges and should know how the money is spent.

POTTAGEVILLE

Remember the special service next Sunday, May 7, when Rev. W. A. Hunslett of the Fred Victor Mission will be at Pottageville at 3 in the afternoon. Members of the Kettleby and Snowball congregations will be especially welcome.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. James Hutt on the arrival of a baby boy. Mr. Tom Blackburn spent Friday with his daughter, Mrs. A. Ellerby, Weston.

GLENVILLE

Mrs. J. King, Toronto, spent last week with her sister, Miss Clarice Sharpe.

Miss Dorothy Webster, Toronto, spent the weekend with her grandmother, Mrs. Jos. Webster. A miscellaneous shower was held at Sharpe's on Saturday evening, April 29, for Miss Beth Webster, whose marriage to Mr. Kenneth Watson takes place in Eglington United church Saturday evening, May 6. They received many useful gifts from their Glensville friends who wish them a long and happy married life.

Successful farmers know the value of modern scientific fertilization for their grain, hay, pasture, root, and small fruit crops.

Phosphate is a primary need of select spring grown grains and tests have also shown that fertilized pasture lands provide more cheap feed than any other crop.

Why pay out good money for grass and clover seed and neglect to provide the fertilizer required to ensure a good crop?

This bank is interested in helping progressive farmers to succeed. If you need money for a Farm Improvement Loan or for any worthwhile purpose, come in and talk over your plans.

"Boss, don't you know that 85% of all bacteria in milk comes from unsanitized utensils? You can kill bacteria—get lower counts with

LO-BAX & NOXSOIL

Lo-bax, Chlorine close, contains 50% available Chlorine, kills bacteria almost instantly on contact. Use Lo-bax just before milking.
Noxsoil, used just after milking, cleans utensils thoroughly—faster, brighter, easier.
